Learning from Urban Immigrant Youth About Academic Literacies Jie Park,2018-05-15 This book reports on a two year long qualitative literacy case study of the academic literacies of first and second generation immigrant youth in an afterschool tutoring program in South Bronx New York Through transcripts of tutoring sessions interview data and youths written work each chapter highlights how youth interpreted and navigated various school assignments and what resources and perspectives they brought to unpacking the meaning and significance of texts and disciplinary discourses By focusing on the immigrant youth themselves and not on the teaching that happens or does not happen inside classrooms this volume provides a unique and much needed vantage point to understanding the academic literacies and engagement of urban immigrant youth

Handbook of Research on Writing Charles Bazerman,2009-03-04 The Handbook of Research on Writing ventures to sum up inquiry over the last few decades on what we know about writing and the many ways we know it How do people write How do they learn to write and develop as writers Under what conditions and for what purposes do people write What resources and technologies do we use to write How did our current forms and practices of writing emerge within social history What impacts has writing had on society and the individual What does it mean to be and to learn to be an active participant in contemporary systems of meaning This cornerstone volume advances the field by aggregating the broad ranging interdisciplinary multidimensional strands of writing research and bringing them together into a common intellectual space Endeavoring to synthesize what has been learned about writing in all nations in recent decades it reflects a wide scope of international research activity with attention to writing at all levels of schooling and in all life situations Chapter authors all eminent researchers come from disciplines as diverse as anthropology archeology typography communication studies linguistics journalism sociology rhetoric composition law medicine education history and literacy studies The Handbook s 37 chapters are organized in five sections The History of Writing Writing in Society Writing in Schooling Writing and the Individual Writing as Text This volume in summing up what is known about writing deepens our experience and appreciation of writing in ways that will make teachers better at teaching writing and all of its readers better as individual writers It will be interesting and useful to scholars and researchers of writing to anyone who teaches writing in any context at any level and to all those who are just curious about writing The Idea of Difficulty in Literature Alan Carroll Purves,1991-09-03 This book redefines the nature of textual difficulty in literature and shows the implications of the new definition for teachers at all levels of education Contrary to the traditional use of grade levels or readability formulae the authors redefine difficulty in terms of readers and the texts they meet They base their arguments on contemporary linguistic theory on historical and comparative studies of criticism on literary theory about readers and texts on post Freudian psychology on empirical research concerning the nature of reading literature and on studies of classrooms curricula and testing What emerges is a coherent work that builds a case for seeing difficulty in literature as a human phenomenon more than a textual one Human Development and the Spiritual Life Ronald R.

Irwin,2012-12-06 The author proposes a theory of the development of consciousness in which ego is the central agent of socialization and culture and the driving force behind individual self control and self regulation He reviews the literature on identity and narrative outlines the fields of intellectual self moral and consciousness development and discusses the evidence indicating that the development of consciousness transcends the limitations of conventional ego development Handbook of Reading Research, Volume II Rebecca Barr,Michael L. Kamil,Peter B. Mosenthal,P David Pearson,2016-11-18 A comprehensive overview of important contemporary issues in the field of reading research from the mid 1980s to mid 1990s this well received volume offers readers an examination of literacy through a variety of lenses some permitting microscopic views and others panoramic views A veritable who s who of specialists in the field chapter authors cover current methodology as well as cumulative research based knowledge Because it deals with society and literacy the first section provides the broadest possible view of literacy The second section defines the range of activities culturally determined to be a part of the enterprise known as literacy The third focuses on the processes that individuals engage in when they perform the act of reading The fourth section visits the environment in which the knowledge that comprises literacy is passed on from one generation to the next The last section an epilogue to the whole enterprise of reading research provides apt philosophical reflection Contextualizing Writing and Response in Graduate Seminars Paul Arthur Prior,1992

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Literacy Research ,1992 The Culture of Reading and the Teaching of English Kathleen McCormick,1994 The Culture of Reading and the Teaching of English aims to do for contemporary literary and cultural theory what I A Richard s Practical Criticism did for literary formalism Kathleen McCormick analyzes current approaches to reading theory and the teaching of literary and related cultural texts She moves beyond theory with its tendency to become arcane and elitist and instead examines the cultures of reading its ideologies institutions and classroom practices She presents cognitive expressivist and culturally based approaches to reading and then considers a variety of institutional and classroom practices from the writing of formal essays to the use of textbooks This represents a crucial intervention in debates around the reformation of new curricula in schools and the politically correct classroom currently raging in both Britain and America The Culture of Reading is much more than a classroom oriented approach to contemporary literary and cultural theory Through accounts of teaching experiences student writing professional conferences and curriculum battles on both sides of the Atlantic she tells an often personal frequently amusing account of the discoveries of one teacher herself a widely published critic writer and lecturer as she finds how theory is mediated in very different institutions social contexts and classroom situations Conversational Organization and Its Development Bruce Dorval,1990 Teaching Argumentative Writing to Twelfth Grade Students Barbara Ann Beck Perushek,1999

English Quarterly ,1998 Reading Engagement John T. Guthrie,1997 Drawing on the professional literature of many fields this book provides an interpretation of the available research on motivation and describes instructional approaches in classroom contexts The book aims to help teacher educators researchers and graduate students understand the research literature in motivation and use in their efforts to enhance children s literacy development After an introduction Reading Engagement A Rationale for Theory and Teaching John T Guthrie and Allan Wigfield chapters in the book are 1 Children s Motivations for Reading and Reading Engagement Allan Wigfield 2 Developing Self Efficacious Readers and Writers The Role of Social and Self Regulatory Processes Dale H Schunk and Barry J Zimmerman 3 Motivation Volition and Collaborative Innovation in Classroom Literacy Lyn Corno and Judi Randi 4 The Pull of the Text and the Process of Involvement in Reading Diane Lemonnier Schallert and JoyLynn Hailey Reed 5 Teacher Perceptions of Student Motivation and Their Relation to Literacy Learning Anne P Sweet 6 The Role of Responsive Teaching in Focusing Reader Intention and Developing Reader Motivation Robert B Ruddell and Norman J Unrau 7 Characteristics of Classrooms That Promote Motivations and Strategies for Learning John T Guthrie and Ann Dacey McCann 8 Integrating Science and Literacy Experiences to Motivate Student Learning Roger Bruning and Barbara M Schweiger 9 Ownership Literacy Achievement and Students of Diverse Cultural Backgrounds Kathryn H Au 10 Starting Right Strategies for Engaging Young Literacy Learners Julianne C Turner 11 Incentives and Intrinsic Motivation to Read Linda B Gambrell and Barbara Ann Marinak and 12 School Change and Literacy Engagement Preparing Teaching and Learning Environments Carol Minnick Santa RS Multiple Literacies for the 21st Century Brian A. Huot,Beth Stroble,Charles Bazerman,2004 This volume makes an important contribution to our understanding of literacy as a multi faceted complexly situated activity Contributing authors represent a wide variety of theoretical and research perspectives Each chapters provides a fresh perspective into a different site for literate behavior and relationships Freeing literacy from a specific site or set of practices allows us to see it as a way to consider the experiences memories and histories of those who use literacy to make meaning in their lives     Whitaker's Book List ,1991     Taking Time, Making Meaning Barbara Sands,1993     The Psycholinguistics of Readable Writing Alice S. Horning,1993 This book reviews research in linguistics psychology reading and writing and brings this work to bear on the problem of readable writing The research supports the theory that two factors in text are crucial to its readable quality psycholinguistic redundancy and cohesion The book also reports the results of three empirical studies and a case study that further illustrates this theory The findings have important theoretical and practical implications because they shed light on the nature of reading and writing processes from both linguistic and psychological perspectives and suggest practical approaches to the production and comprehension of readable writing The book also draws on research in second language acquisition and is pertinent to readable writing in both first and second languages     Theoretical Models and Processes of Reading Robert B. Ruddell,Martha Rapp Ruddell,Harry Singer,1994 This volume is segmented into four sections historical changes in reading processes of reading and literacy models of reading and literacy processes and new paradigms The process section should assist students in understanding and visualizing the exploration of important research questions
