Developing A Constitution For Europe:

Developing a Constitution for Europe Erik Oddvar Eriksen, John Erik Fossum, Agustín Menéndez, 2004-08-02 The European Union is currently in the midst of a comprehensive process of reform and the aim of this book is to address the challenge of forging a legitimate Constitution for the EU These authors clarify the constitutional status of the EU to take stock of the European Charter of Fundamental Rights and Convention of the Future of Europe as vehicles to foster and create a European constitution

Reforming the European Commission Michael W. Bauer, 2013-10-18 Many international and supranational organisations have lately been busy modernising their internal administration But nowhere has management change received a similar amount of attention than in the case of the European Commission Although the perception prevails that the Commission has been losing out in recent years this vivid interest academic as well as public in the so called Kinnock reform suggests that this organisation still remains at the heart of the Union The proposition of this book thus is simple If it remains true that the Commission is an essential part within the admittedly complex equation of EU policy making changes of the administration basis of this actor are likely to have broader implications Consequently this special issue poses three crucial questions about the recent administrative reform of the European Commission why was such a comprehensive reform possible what are its specific implications for the Commission as an organisation and what is the likely impact for the policy process In short this book puts the organisational base of EU policy making centre stage In the quest for answers the authors of the subsequent chapters take distinct perspectives use various research strategies and methods and attempt to solve diverse empirical puzzles But all attempt to add to our understanding of this organisational base and how to systematically study it This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy

Making Sense of European Union Law Monica Claes, Ellen Vos, 2023-01-12 This book reflects on selected issues of European law in dialogue with leading legal scholar Bruno De Witte whose work has enlightened generations of students scholars and practitioners of European law The volume is designed to mark the impressive academic oeuvre of a great legal mind and true academic whose elegant and insightful writings have decisively contributed to the advancement of the study of European law The contributions attempt to make sense of European Union law reflecting Bruno's mission as a legal scholar and commenting on some of the themes that he has worked on constitutional Europe differentiated Europe social and educational Europe and minorities Europe It culminates in reflections on the very nature of Bruno's scholarship and his academic persona Not only is this book a public recognition and an expression of appreciation for all that Bruno has offered to the European legal community but also an invitation to challenge the way many scholars think of academic careers and their ways to success

The European Union and Sustainable Development Marc Pallemmaerts, Albena Azmanova, 2006 Since the Treaty of Amsterdam sustainable development is legally enshrined among the fundamental objectives of European integration and the contributors to this volume bring a diversity of perspectives to bear on both the internal and external dimensions of the EU's relationship with sustainable development The diversity of views reflected in this book testifies to the politically sensitive essentially contested nature of the concept But it cannot be denied that sustainable development policies have become institutionalized in the EU and its Member States and as such constitute an important new subject of inquiry and debate for all those interested in the fate of the European project     The Development of European Polity Henry Sidgwick,Eleanor Mildred Sidgwick,1920

The Development of the European Nations, 1870-1900 John Holland Rose,1914     European Strategic Autonomy and Small States' Security Giedrius Česnakas,Justinias Juozaitis,2022-12-26 This book analyses whether the EU s drift towards European strategic autonomy presents a challenge or a window of opportunity for its small member states to advance their security interests The volume presents small states perceptions of European strategic autonomy highlighting their expectations and concerns The chapters focus on the depth and breadth of European strategic autonomy national security considerations assessment of the impact on transatlantic relations the expected outputs and its potential impact on the EU s institutional structure It also shows how systemic circumstances and the interests of powerful states either belonging to the EU France Germany and Poland or having a significant say in European security architecture the US establish opportunities and constraints for the small states to shape European strategic autonomy In particular the study focuses on the diverging interests of the Baltic states Estonia Latvia and Lithuania Belgium Denmark Greece Hungary and the Netherlands It demonstrates that in most cases European strategic autonomy is perceived not as an alternative to NATO but as a supplementary element that could facilitate the development of national military capabilities indigenous defence industries and resilience to non military threats Ultimately the book suggests that national approaches towards European strategic autonomy mainly stem from pragmatic national security and foreign policy considerations while largely ignoring grand strategic ideas This book will be of much interest to students of European politics security studies and international relations The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license     The Development of Modern Europe James Harvey Robinson,Charles Austin Beard,1908 Covers the territorial changes national policies economic conditions and intellectual interests of western Europe during the few decades before the French Revolution and before that the Industrial Revolution through the Partition of Africa at the Berlin Congress in 1884 in which the European Powers interested in Africa declared the entire drainage of the Congo River as an international state which should be open to the trade of all nations     The Historical Development of Modern Europe from the Congress of Vienna to the Present Time Charles McLean Andrews,1896     The historical development of modern Europe... Charles McLean Andrews,1898
