Development and Management of Cities Asian Development Bank,1999 Development and Management of Cities Asian Development Bank,1999 Making Cities Work Richard Gilbert,Don Stevenson,Herbert Girardet,Richard Stren,2013-11-05 For too long cities have been thought of as environmental blackspots with high levels of air and soil pollution overcrowding poor sanitation and growing waste disposal problems This book takes a more positive attitude cities can be made to work sustainably Their high population density can work in the environment s favour if they can achieve efficient use of resources such as energy and water supplies and improve transport and infrastructure The best cities today are clean resource efficient green and pleasant and not only act as cultural and entertainment centres but also harbour great varieties of wildlife Making Cities Work looks at the vital role which local authorities can and must play in safeguarding and developing our towns and cities Their role is crucial and the aim of the book is to make governments international bodies and local authority associations aware of how potential environmental and social problems can be overcome and what can be achieved This book is being written by urban development experts based on material supplied by the world s leading city associations It is being edited by one of the world s most highly regarded cultural ecologists and has been commissioned by UNHCS for the Habitat II conference Clearly written accessible and fully illustrated throughout with photographs figures and graphs it is ideal for students fascinating reading for the general public and essential for those involved in local authorities planning and development Partnership for Local Capacity Development Paul N. Bongers,2003 ADB Publications Asian Development Bank,2006 Pathways for agrifood systems transformation and regional cooperation in the Mediterranean Zurayk, R.,Yehya, A.A.K.,Sadek, M.,De Matteis, L.,Valls Bedeau, J.,2024-07-29 Sustainable agrifood systems are crucial for achieving the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs by 2030 yet structural inequalities and recent crises underscore the urgent need for transformative change This report focuses on the Mediterranean region examining challenges and opportunities for agrifood systems transformation within its unique socio economic and political context Drawing on global and regional momentum the report identifies barriers hindering transformation proposes policy recommendations and highlights opportunities for regional cooperation It leverages insights from the UN Food Systems Summits and a typological approach to categorize countries based on their agrifood systems and economic development status The analysis reveals diverse challenges but also positive attributes such as dietary traditions and biodiversity While most initiatives prioritize defining goals and establishing support ecosystems there s a need for greater policy coherence and governance mechanisms The report identifies strategies to address these gaps including providing policy guidance expanding collaborative networks enhancing data management and unlocking sustainable finance Ultimately an integrated approach that harmonizes various agrifood systems aligns with local realities and strengthens partnerships is essential for transformative change By leveraging existing initiatives expanding collaboration and addressing unique regional challenges

the report charts a united pathway towards sustainable agrifood systems in the Mediterranean fostering prosperity and resilience ADB Review Asian Development Bank,1999

Network Developments in Economic Spatial Systems Aura Reggiani,Daniele Fabbri,2019-01-22 First published in 1999 the main feature of this book is its multidisciplinary nature since the book focuses on the complexity of spatial economic networks from several methodological points of view For this purpose both theoretical and empirical works have been included The aim of the book is to provide an updated and fresh look at the mentioned issue with innovative and creative papers coming from leading experts belonging to different disciplines Therefore the book could be considered as an expert and critical guide through different methodological approaches to the topic of complex networks in the space economy All the contributions provide innovative and in some cases provocative elements to the understanding of networks and development over space
