Globalisation Volume 1 Allan Aubrey Boesak,L. D. Hansen,2009-06-01 Since the adoption of the Accra Declaration by the World Alliance of Reformed Churches in Accra Ghana 2004 churches in the Reformed communion all over the world have been confronted with some of the most burning issues of our day globalisation in the myriad life changing ways it impacts on the world and the lives of ordinary people in communities everywhere World in Transition 4 German Advisory Council On Global Change (Wbgu),2013-09-13 At the start of the 21st century fighting poverty and protecting the environment are two of the most urgent challenges facing the international community Environmental changes will jeopardize people s survival to an even greater extent in the future and will hit the poor hardest To meet these challenges it will be essential to breathe new life into the partnership between industrialized and developing countries It will be equally essential to combine poverty reduction with environmental protection in an integrated policy structure spanning all levels from local to global In this report the German Advisory Council on Global Change WBGU shows that global environmental policy is a prerequisite for global poverty reduction WBGU analyses the relevant policy processes and delivers recommendations charting the way forward With its interdisciplinary approach providing a complex and systematic analysis of the poverty environment nexus WBGU s latest report breaks new ground Indira Gandhi s old convenient maxim was Poverty is the biggest polluter Put forward at the 1972 UN Conference on the Human Environment in Stockholm it has been sorely misused ever since to override environmental precaution and prioritize economic development strategies instead The new WBGU report maps out a way to shape a coherent environment and development policy This report revitalizes the Rio spirit and gives it a robust scientific base Prof Dr Ernst Ulrich von Weizsäcker Member of the German Bundestag MdB Islam in the Age of Globalization Asif Mohiuddin,2024-11-29 Globalization has been a central theme in political economic cultural and religious debates since the turn of the century While some see it as a solution others consider it the root of our problems The intensification of cultural and military warfare and the West v the Rest mentality fuels a deep seated ethnocentrism Religion meanwhile faces scrutiny from various fundamentalisms and grand narratives Many modern Muslim thinkers are skeptical of globalization perceiving it as a homogenizing force that spreads Western culture and concentrates power among a few nations They argue that Islam promotes human oneness and provides an intellectual and spiritual framework for a more civilized and universal approach to globalization opposing the Western centric hegemonic tendencies The goal of this book is to demonstrate that Islam favors globalization in its original voluntary form as opposed to the violent imposition of the West on the East It will examine Muslim responses to globalization and their attempts to find global answers to local problems in their own local regional national and global contexts Several academic works have explored various aspects of globalization focusing on tensions and conflicts such as power politics religious authority and legislative issues However there is a notable absence of attention given to the Islamic perspective on globalization including both appreciation and critique This book addresses this gap by offering not only a Muslim critique of globalization but also a broader framework for understanding Islam's unique perspective on globalization. Does globalization support the inclusivity that Islam advocates? How does Islam fit into the globalization era? What impact and influence may Muslims have on the future of globalization? What unique prospects does globalization provide Muslims and the Islamic faith? Is Islamic revivalism a reaction to globalization? Alternatives to globalization could exist. What kind of structure will the Islamic globalization paradigm have? In addition to addressing these questions, the book attempts to provide a theoretical framework for Islamic globalization which incorporates the shuratic practice and the vision of an international community extending beyond the Arabs and non Arabs. This underscores the importance of historical contexts for contemporary actions and beliefs. In the process, the book attempts to extend the debate on Islam and globalization by mapping out the effects of globalization on various aspects of Muslim culture. OECD Investment Policy Perspectives 2008 OECD, 2009-01-16.
