Assisting Russia's Transition Gianni Zanini,2002-01-01 This evaluation assesses the development effectiveness of the World Bank s lending and non lending assistance to the Russian Federation since 1991 a 10 year period of tumultuous political economic and social change This report concludes that an assistance strategy concentrating on analytical and advisory services with limited financial support for Russia would have been more appropriate than one involving large volumes of adjustment lending

Engaging with Fragile States ,2006-01-01 During fiscal 2003 05 World Bank lending and administrative budgets to fragile states amounted to 4 1 billion and 161 million respectively This report assesses the effectiveness of this Bank support The report finds that the Bank and the donor community have improved their operational readiness to engage with fragile states and made substantial progress on donor coordination at the international policy level Significant challenges remain however Donor agendas have been overly ambitious and need to be made more selective the effectiveness of donor programs needs to be improved after the immediate post conflict phase in war ravaged countries when structural change is needed and donors need to develop transparent aid allocation criteria that ensure that fragile states will be neither under nor over aided The report makes recommendations to overcome these challenges and distills lessons for the Bank and other donors

Operations Evaluation World Bank. Independent Evaluation Group,2006-01-01 The 2005 Annual Report on Operation Evaluation examines the use of information by World Bank managers to improve development results and enhance the effectiveness of the Bank at the country level It suggests that greater attention is needed to measure and manage development results at the country level This will require strengthening countries performance measurement capacity The Bank is making progress in strengthening the results focus of its monitoring and evaluation but more attention is needed to improve performance measurement and tracking progress Publications Catalog World Bank,2004 Pension Reform and the Development of Pension Systems Emily S. The Effectiveness of World Bank Support for Community-based and -driven Development Nalini Kumar, 2005 This report analyzes the effectiveness of the World Bank's lending support for the growing area of community based development CBD and community driven development CDD The latter supports the empowerment of the poor by giving communities control over subproject resources and decisions while CBD gives communities less responsibility and emphasizes collaboration consultation or sharing information with them on project activities Since the late 1990s the focus of Bank supported CBD CDD projects has shifted toward CDD though many CDD projects also include CBD components

Assessing World Bank Support for Trade, 1987-2004 Yvonne M. Tsikata, 2006 This evaluation of the Bank's assistance on trade related issues focuses on the period between fiscal years 1987 and 2004 The majority of developing countries have significantly improved their environment for trade and economic growth following over two decades of assistance from the Bank in trade reform Arguably the developing world is more open today than at any time in recent memory Developing countries have more than doubled their exports since the mid 1980s helping many of them to grow steadily Exports and imports have risen as a share of the gross domestic product GDP across a wide range of countries fueled in part by China's remarkable trade performance and the growth in services trade Trade policies have also been significantly liberalized Average import tariffs have fallen steadily over the period although the fall in other forms of protection has been more gradual Between fiscal years 1987 and 2004 about 81 percent of total Bank commitments went to 117 countries to help them better integrate into the global economy This financing has been accompanied by a large volume of analysis in operational economic and sector work ESW research publications on trade and working papers on trade related topics During the first phase starting in the 1980s the Bank focused largely on the traditional trade agenda related to opening up economies During the second phase from the mid to late 1990s the Bank's emphasis on trade declined although the impact of earlier trade reforms was still playing out In the third phase initiated with the collapse of the World Trade Organization WTO Seattle trade ministerial meeting in 1999 growing pressure to deliver on the Millennium Development Goals MDG and interest from development partners notably bilateral donors led the Bank to reappraise its trade activities This phase has focused on the global trading system and behind the border barriers to trade The Bank's trade activities during the period were led by a trade policy reform package supported by four components import related export related exchange rate and foreign exchange management and industrial and other supporting policies This assessment reviews project related outcomes and outputs to focus on the progress toward a more development friendly trading

Recommendations include addressing poverty distributional outcomes and external shocks in a balanced approach revisiting the balance between global and country agendas and strengthening operational links on trade issues and strengthening knowledge management efforts
