Kurtzberg, 2014-03-28 To advance in today s workplace requires virtual team skills Most individuals assume their face to face skills will translate but competency with virtual communication and teamwork requires an entirely new set of skills This book guides readers down the path to success Electronic communication is now embedded in our daily experience as is work involving off site collaborators Virtual communication has become an essential job skill that is critical to individual and group success yet most people just muddle through it without giving it any thought Drawing on decades of scientific research in the fields of psychology organizational behavior and sociology this book explains how to master the art and science of communicating virtually The author first analyzes the subtle but significant changes that result when conversations are moved online providing examples and tips to avoid common pitfalls then discusses how team behavior and decision making can best be guided in this realm Readers will fully understand what makes teams click what inspires trust how to get a team off on the right foot and what steps to take in order to make good collaborative decisions as well as other key topics for virtual teamwork such as best practices for working in the cross cultural environment The book serves as an ideal guide for anyone who participates in or manages a virtual team but is also suitable as a supplemental textbook in a business school course on organizational behavior or business communication Working at a Distance Cassandra J. Smith, 2016-02-11 Organizations are implementing virtual teams using web technologies as a cost effective measure for training and project development In Working at a Distance Cassandra Smith provides a detailed comprehensible virtual team business model for managers professionals teachers or students involved globally with such initiatives The author argues that guidance for members of such teams is generally lacking They are left to figure out their places on the team and face a host of other issues the impact of which can be ameliorated with a virtual team business model that anyone working at a distance can follow Cassandra Smith has taught courses online and facilitated virtual teams The model she has created based on that experience maximizes the benefit to be gained from individual members skills personality styles and the strengths of each active participant It will enable teams to set up viable working plans and work cohesively at a distance The model also provides for conflict management in virtual environments Built on research and practical experience the empirical data and subject experts views captured by the author and the model offered here will help all stakeholders of businesses or educational institutions where managers employees and clients or teachers and students are working at a distance to achieve desired outcomes Quick Team-Building Activities for Busy Managers Brian Cole Miller, 2015-03-25 Eliminate the need for time or resources on formal training and get your teams up and running themselves with only minutes of prep Between workplace personnel being more culturally diverse than ever before a generation of employees being raised attached to technology while avoiding human interaction and an increasing culture of competitiveness that is constantly raising tensions between cubicles it has become absolutely essential for managers to focus more on camaraderie and building team spirit Now in its second edition Quick Team Building Activities for Busy Managers addresses the problems that drag down group productivity and helps teams Collaborate successfully Cope with change Solve problems together Communicate better despite cultural and generational differences Boost creativity Leverage diversity Nurture healthy competition Each of the 50 team building activities in this invaluable resource takes only minutes to prep and uses only everyday office items to get its point across In just 15 minutes a day the results will be immediate sullen teams find sparkle nervous teams gain confidence teams of strangers get to know one another There are even activities to help the virtual team No one will be left out and all will leave the activity feeling better about their team and their individual role within it Encyclopedia of Information
