exponential rate of change in society we must understand today's students and the four disparate generations in our staffs. This book is critical to help leaders bridge those gaps. How do we prepare today's students for the rapidly changing workplace and society in which they will live, work, and interact in an education system designed for a century that has passed us by? In 5 Gen Leadership: Leading 5 Generations in Schools in the 2020s, Mark White clearly provides a well-lit path to assist educators to successfully make the necessary cultural, structural, and instructional changes that are needed. Bill Daggett, Founder, International Center for Leadership in Education (ICLE). Writing Futures: Collaborative, Algorithmic, Autonomous, Ann Hill Duin, Isabel Pedersen, 2021-06-18. This book is useful to understand and write alongside non-human agents, examine the impact of algorithms and AI on writing, and accommodate relationships with autonomous agents. This groundbreaking, future-driven framework prepares scholars and practitioners to investigate and plan for the social, digital literacy, and civic implications arising from emerging technologies. This book prepares researchers, students, practitioners, and citizens to work with AI writers, virtual humans, and social robots. This book explores prompts to envision how fields and professions will change. The book's unique integration with Fabric of Digital Life, a database and structured content repository for conducting social and cultural analysis of emerging technologies, provides concrete examples throughout. Readers gain imperative direction for collaborative, algorithmic, and autonomous writing futures. Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1991.
