Trending Ai Automation Tools In The United States:

New Trends in Intelligent Software Methodologies, Tools and Techniques Hamido Fujita, Guido Guizzi, 2023-10-15 Software is an essential enabler for science and the new economy but current software methodologies tools and techniques are often still not sufficiently robust or reliable for the constantly changing and evolving market and many promising approaches have proved to be no more than case oriented methods that are not fully automated This book presents the proceedings of SoMeT_23 the 22nd International Conference on New Trends in Intelligent Software Methodology Tools and Techniques held from 20-22 September 2023 in Naples Italy The conference brings together researchers and practitioners to share original research and practical development experience in software science and related new technologies and is an opportunity for the software science community to take stock of where they are today and consider future directions The 25 papers included here were carefully selected from the many high quality submissions received after a rigorous review process with each paper typically being reviewed by 3 or 4 reviewers Topics covered range from research practices techniques and methodologies to the solutions required by global business SoMeT_23 focused in particular on intelligent software the application of artificial intelligence techniques in software development and tackling human interaction in the development process for better high level interface with an emphasis on human centric software methodologies end user development techniques and emotional reasoning for an optimum performance between design tool and user Exploring trends theories and challenges in the integration of software and science for tomorrow's global information society the book captures a new state of the art in software science and its supporting technology and will be of interest to all those working in the field

The Adoption of Artificial Intelligence and Inertia in Higher Education James Hutson, 2025-10-01 This research monograph explores the complex resistance to integrating Artificial Intelligence AI within higher education institutions Despite the significant potential of AI to enhance education faculty adoption remains inconsistent and is often met with skepticism This book investigates key factors contributing to this resistance such as leadership deficits funding barriers cultural inertia and faculty attitudes toward technological change Drawing on qualitative and quantitative empirical data case studies from U S and international institutions and theoretical analysis the book uncovers underlying concerns about job security and professional identity It points to actionable strategies for overcoming these barriers and will be relevant for scholars researchers advanced students and educators grappling with issues navigating technological integration in academia and with interests in the sociology of education educational technology and higher education administration

Digitalization and Artificial Intelligence in Courts, 2025-09-25 In an era of rapid technological advancement justice systems around the world stand at the threshold of a profound transformation Digitalization and artificial intelligence offer unprecedented opportunities to enhance efficiency broaden access to legal remedies and bring courts closer to citizens Yet as judicial processes become increasingly digitalized and automated critical questions arise how can we ensure transparency fairness and accountability in online dispute resolution ODR and AI driven systems What protections must be in place to preserve privacy uphold fundamental rights and ensure that technology serves rather than undermines the core principles of justice Positioned at the intersection between technology and justice Digitalization and Artificial Intelligence in Courts Opportunities and Challenges explores these questions The first part of the volume considers strategies for bridging the digital divide explores the potential for process pluralism outlines data protection requirements and emphasizes the necessity of robust cybersecurity frameworks It also tackles one of the most pressing concerns of the digital era fostering trust and legal certainty in a virtual justice system The second part presents a comparative analysis of selected groundbreaking national and cross border court digitalization initiatives from England and the United States to China Pakistan and the European Union The final part examines the role of AI in courts offering a critical reflection on its promises and perils from algorithmic bias to the controversial concept of AI judges Through a rigorous and balanced analysis the authors map the opportunities and challenges of an increasingly digitalized legal landscape Essential for legal professionals policymakers and scholars Digitalization and Artificial Intelligence in Courts serves as a fundamental guide to navigating the future of justice systems and technology in the twenty first century Includes a foreword by Lord Briggs of Westbourne Justice of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom

Recent Trends in Engineering, Science and Technology Jyoti Sekhar Banerjee, Siddhartha Bhattacharyya, Debashis De, Jinia Datta, Panagiotis Sarigiannidis, Jan Platos, Muhammad Mujtaba Asad, 2025-08-19 AIEST is a leading conference focused on providing a platform to researchers scholars engineers scientists and industrial professionals to gather knowledge and bridge the gap between academia and its industrial aspects around the world This conference will be an immersive experience primarily focusing on the latest advancements and researchers in various fields of engineering including but not limited to Mechanical Engineering Civil Engineering Electrical Engineering Electronics and Communications Engineering Computer Science Engineering Information Technology and other interdisciplinary areas AIEST will cater to the transitional practices where industrial knowledge would be conveyed to academia regarding real time scenarios and practical findings thus fostering collaboration and the development of innovative solutions to counter contemporary challenges in engineering and technology
