Centering Indigenous Standpoints through Mediated Communication Ben R. LaPoe, Victoria L. LaPoe, 2025-12-11 Centering Indigenous Standpoints through Mediated Communication explores how different forms of Indigenous media including social media are significant advocacy and educational methods of resistance against repeated attempts at genocide erasure misrepresentation vilification forced assimilation and stereotyping perpetuated by colonial systems Ben R LaPoe II and Victoria L LaPoe argue that unlike mainstream media operating under settler principles Indigenous media privileges Indigenous life experiences emphasizes Indigenous contexts honors Indigenous social customs amplifies Indigenous voices and incorporates Indigenous worldviews The book introduces readers to these intersections of Indigenous knowledge and explores the ways in which narrative advocacy empowers and benefits those who communicate their own voices and experiences Through a multi method approach and analyses of Indigenous social media posts through the framework of Indigenous Standpoint Theory IST the authors identify Indigenous advocacy renovation efforts on mainstream social media platforms and demonstrate how different platforms can impact communities and act as a form of source sovereignty Ultimately the results of these analyses position IST as a key approach to supporting the decolonization of knowledge and advocacy in media spaces

Rebel Leaders GSD (Get Stuff Done!) Nathan W. Tierney, 2025-12-24 What is a rebel leader A rebel leader doesn't ask permission They don't hide behind titles or throw around buzzwords They lead through chaos clear eyed sleeves rolled up no fluff They don't break rules just to stir the pot they challenge the ones that block progress They fix what's broken and build momentum where others stall out You'll find them in uniform classrooms cubicles and corner offices Veterans first gen grads sharp outsiders anyone bold enough to rethink what's always been done and gutsy enough to do something better Rebel Leaders GSD is not another leadership book filled with pie charts and passive advice It s a field manual for people navigating the real world people who are done pretending done waiting and ready to GSD Whether you re A veteran trading in your uniform for a badge a brand or a business A recent grad facing your first real job and wondering who wrote these broken rules Or an exhausted employee trying to lead without selling out This book gives you the tactical playbook to adapt speak plainly and cut through the noise You ll learn how to Lead when the rules make no damn sense Communicate like a human not a robot Act decisively even when no one hands you a plan This is the leadership book for people who hate leadership books It isn t theory It s trench tested And if you ve ever felt like your grit clarity or instincts weren t welcome in the room this is your proof that they are And your call to lead anyway Welcome to the rebellion

Dating Apps, Modern Romance, and Social Inequality Hannah Regan, 2025-12-11 How do we fall in love in the 21st century In Dating Apps Modern Romance and Social Inequality Hannah Regan explores the impact dating apps have had on how we meet potential partners and decide who to date In particular Regan considers our tendency to fall in love with people who are very similar to us and how dating apps both facilitate this preference and challenge us to think outside the box By sharing the stories of dating app users the book raises important questions about how social inequality exists in our intimate lives and how technology reinforces these long held social beliefs This book situates current patterns of dating and relationships within the historical context of courtship to explore how the introduction of new technology has changed romantic partnerships Despite these new possibilities the analysis encourages us to question whether dating is in fact changing or whether we are simply enacting the same old social patterns in new ways Challenging the assumptions which shape dating preferences in turn challenges the social structures of power and inequality which underlie them
