Delusive Speech in the Sharing Economy Julie Reid, 2025-03-04 In this examination of how the rise of online sharing economy platforms has facilitated online crime this book shows how while marketed as trustworthy peer to peer services these platforms are highly vulnerable to misuse by scammers and are used for the dissemination of delusive speech The analysis centres around the concept of delusive speech a sub set of disinformation designed to deceive and motivate by criminal intent Looking beyond the economic and disruptive impacts of sharing economy platforms like Uber Airbnb and others this book situates these Big Tech giants as mass communication channels that are frequently misused by bad actors to distribute dangerous content globally Drawing from over 600 cases of victims lured into scams or physical danger via misleading Airbnb listings the book provides a detailed case study exposing Airbnb's failure to establish legitimate safety measures despite branding its platform as a community of trust Incorporating netnography and thematic analysis the author theorises the deceptive semiotic structure of delusive speech and evaluates practical mechanisms Airbnb could employ to prevent scams and crime on its platform With a global audience including researchers in communication and media studies digital media and media industries as well as tech journalists Silicon Valley critics policymakers and digital rights advocates this book unmasks how sharing economy giants like Airbnb contribute to an epidemic of online deception causing real world harm

The De Gruyter Handbook of Automated Futures Vaike Fors, Martin Berg, Meike Brodersen, 2024-09-23 How does automation affect us our environment and our imaginations What actions should we take in response to automation Beyond grand narratives and technology driven visions of the future what more can automation offer With these questions in mind The De Gruyter Handbook of Automated Futures provides a framework for thinking about and implementing automation differently It consolidates automated futures as an inter and transdisciplinary research field embedding the imaginaries interactions and impacts of automation technology within their social historical societal cultural and political contexts

Promoting a critical yet constructive and engaging agenda the handbook invites readers to collaborate with rather than resist automation agendas It does so by pushing the agenda for social science humanities and design beyond merely assessing and evaluating existing technologies Instead the handbook demonstrates how the humanities and social sciences are essential to the design and governance of sustainable sociotechnical systems Methodologically the handbook is underpinned by a pedagogical approach to staging co learning and co creation of automated futures with rather than simply for people In this way the handbook encourages readers to explore new and alternative modes of research fostering a deeper engagement with the evolving landscape of automation
