Farmers' Guide, 1901 Start-up Wolf Olivia Yijian Liu, 2024-05-28 Transnational entrepreneurs with technological know how have been promoted by the Chinese state and academic literature as a central force for regional development of industrial competitiveness But what motivates them and what do they experience and aspire to when building a start up in China This book answers these questions by examining how socially privileged entrepreneurial talents adopt and champion the wolf culture a fast paced competitive and aspirational work culture that has become prevalent since China s mass promotion of entrepreneurship and innovation Based on extensive field research including participant observation and interviews in Shenzhen s high tech industry this book challenges the popular notion of entrepreneurship as entirely self initiated and passion driven Outlining the concrete instruments of governance of the local state the author argues that transnational talent from elite schools or elite professions is often entrepreneured in China Moreover she argues that the
