I Know How She Does It Laura Vanderkam, 2017-01-03 Everyone has an opinion anecdote or horror story about women and work Now the acclaimed author of What the Most Successful People Do Before Breakfast shows how real working women with families are actually making the most of their time Having it all has become the subject of countless books articles debates and social media commentary with passions running high in all directions Many now believe this to be gospel truth Any woman who wants to advance in a challenging career has to make huge sacrifices She s unlikely to have a happy marriage quality time with her kids assuming she can have kids at all a social life hobbies or even a decent night s sleep But what if balancing work and family is actually not as hard as it s made out to be What if all those tragic anecdotes ignore the women who quietly but consistently do just fine with the juggle Instead of relying on scattered stories time management expert Laura Vanderkam set out to add hard data to the debate She collected hour by hour time logs from 1 001 days in the lives of women who make at least 100 000 a year And she found some surprising patterns in how these women spend the 168 hours that every one of us has each week Overall these women worked less and slept more than they assumed they did before they started tracking their time They went jogging or to the gym played with their children scheduled date nights with their significant others and had lunches with friends They made time for the things that gave them pleasure and meaning fitting the pieces together like tiles in a mosaic without adhering to overly rigid schedules that would eliminate flexibility and spontaneity Vanderkam shares specific strategies that her subjects use to make time for the things that really matter to them For instance they Work split shifts such as seven hours at work four off then another two at night from home This allows them to see their kids without falling behind professionally Get creative about what counts as quality family time Breakfasts together and morning story time count as much as daily family dinners and they re often easier to manage Take it easy on the housework You can free up a lot of time by embracing the philosophy of good enough and getting help from other members of your household or a cleaning service Guard their leisure time Full weekend getaways may be rare but many satisfying hobbies can be done in small bursts of time An hour of crafting feels better than an hour of reality TV With examples from hundreds of real women Vanderkam proves that you don t have to give up on the things you really want I Know How She Does It will inspire you to build a life

Human Diversity in Education Kenneth Cushner,Averil McClelland,Hyla Cushner,Philip L. Safford,2021-03 It is difficult to fathom the myriad changes that have occurred and that influence the content of this book in just three years since the previous edition As this book goes to press we have witnessed many nations in Europe as well as the United States that have made dramatic political shifts from open and liberal leanings to more populist nationalistic and conservative ideologies These shifts have been accompanied by an increase in xenophobia and stricter actions to reduce immigration often accompanied by a rise in anti immigrant anti Semitic and Islamophobic sentiment The conflicts and struggles in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria continue as tensions between the United States and Russia fester A questioning of Truth with an onslaught of fake news has emerged having a major influence on the 2016 U S presidential election And we expect numerous changes to occur under the new U S Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos And these challenges are in the political arena alone Across the planet people continue to feel the stresses of the seemingly endless changes and challenges they confront on many fronts Climate change continues to advance resulting in new and unpredictable weather patterns despite a vocal minority that appears to deny its existence Although making gains people continue to wrestle with questions surrounding same sex marriage and gay rights the question of health care the accelerated identification of children with autism and other disabilities as well as our aging population span cultural differences and cut across geographic political and social boundaries continuing to impact us all at the local national and global levels Some people are eager to embrace innovation and change while others struggle through a variety of political and social means to retain older and more traditional ways of doing things Such challenges continue to enter and impact our increasingly culturally diverse classrooms and communities To effectively address and solve the multitude of issues we face it is incumbent upon teachers to provide young people with a foundation that will assist them to better understand the complex nature of the world in which they will live while developing the skills that will enable them to be proactive problem solvers in an interdependent global society This requires people who have the knowledge skills and motivations to reach beyond their own cultural boundaries and a willingness and ability to collaborate with others If people are not willing and able to do so these and other future problems simply will not be solved Developing intercultural understanding and competence must be actively addressed throughout the school curriculum This tenth edition of Human

Diversity in Education An Intercultural Approach continues to focus on the preparation of teachers and other human service providers who can interact effectively with the wide diversity of people they are certain to encounter and who are able to transmit this knowledge and skill to the individuals in their charge
