Mission in Praise, Word, and Deed Edward L. Smither, Jessica A. Udall, 2023-09-26 Listening to the Voices of Global Practitioners In Christian mission we cross boundaries between the people of God and the not yet people of God declaring God's glory among the nations Ps 96:3 Mission begins and ends in worship In mission we proclaim the death burial and resurrection of Christ We also care for the whole person Thus at its core mission intertwines praise word and deed This book represents the latest in missiological thinking Though some contributors are scholars and even professors most are field practitioners evangelists church planters Bible translators medical professionals refugee workers and community development specialists Based on decades of faithful service they report on what they have learned about mission Mission in Praise Word and Deed addresses a wide range of critical concerns such as informal theological education Bible translation business as mission trauma care and working on multicultural teams As we ponder best mission practices it s wise to hear from global practitioners those who have been at it for a long time This book represents the diversity of the global church They are men and women from Africa Asia Latin America North America and Europe who have served or presently serve in places across the world These contributors share the conviction that the future of missions involves a growing global church and missionary workforce joining hands to complete the Great Commission amid severe opposition and disruption Digital Nomad Visa Guide
