Ultimate Newsletter Business Ideas For Millennials:

Is Corporate Capitalism the Best We've Got to Offer? Michael Schluter, 2023-06-26 How you can help make companies markets and government fit for purpose If we are serious about transforming capitalist economies we need to start by looking at how these systems connect us as human beings Today few relationships are personal Instead we are linked en masse through vast complex networks financial political social digital The shape and rules of engagement of those networks exerts a powerful influence on our behaviour as governments as companies as NGOs and as individuals At the same time these networks seem to be beyond the possibility of being influenced let alone controlled by governments other individual companies the media NGOs or us as individuals The major challenge facing us is not about ethics Rather it is to design companies markets and government in such a way that the pursuit of justice and sustainability no longer competes with the pursuit of wealth but instead forms a self reinforcing virtuous cycle

Culture Wins William Vanderbloemen, 2018-03-20 What could your company accomplish if it could attract and retain employees who buy into your organization's mission 100% Culture Wins is a practical yet challenging modern guidebook for organizations that want to own the future Its firsthand insights into building a contagious culture will drive sustainable growth and innovation for any organization You will build a healthy workplace increase revenue and change the world with the lessons you'll learn Stop losing employees grow your team and build a contagious company culture that outlasts the competition There are books on general team building there are books on workplace best practices and there are books on leadership but there is not a book that shows forward thinking leaders how to integrate it into today's new job hopping culture William Vanderbloemen uses his company's proven experience in staffing and organizational consulting to provide a global perspective of effective thriving cultures and how to create them

Next Generation Leadership Adam King, 2020-02-04 Employers who don't adapt to the expectations of younger generations are losing top talent as they leave for positions at companies with modern practices Learn what companies need to do to fit into the new normal in the workplace Generation Y sees the world differently than any other generation in modern memory and nowhere is this more evident than in the workplace The shifts that this generation has seen in the economy technology and the world have changed what they want from life and work which is not a 9 5 existence for forty plus years leading to a typical retirement at sixty five What older generations call a poor work ethic from a spoiled generation Gen Y sees as a different way of doing things Companies that take the time to listen realize that what Gen Y is asking for isn't that crazy in fact it's better in many ways such as A demand for work life balance isn't a cry for fewer work hours it's a cry to be able to work from outside the office beyond a rigid 9 5 schedule which can lead to Gen Y employees working even more hours than you expected Leaving a job after a couple years isn't an inability to commit it's a need to learn more expand their experience and develop their career at a faster pace which is helpful to companies that hire those individuals including your own Elevating nontraditional benefits over financial benefits is a step toward creating an emotional connection to the company where employees spend most of their time and invest mental and emotional efforts The need to work for a company with a purpose reflects the power that social media has on the social consciousness Next Generation Leadership will explore what's behind these shifts in the character of the emerging workforce It shows that as Gen Y assumes managerial positions the nature of leadership and business will change over the next few decades in irrevocable and profound ways
