Canada Student Employment Guide, 2002-04 Student Employment Network, 2002-03 Computerworld ,1972-11-29
For more than 40 years Computerworld has been the leading source of technology news and information for IT influencers worldwide Computerworld's award winning Web site Computerworld.com twice monthly publication focused conference series and custom research form the hub of the world's largest global IT media network Computerworld ,1988-02-15 For more than 40 years Computerworld has been the leading source of technology news and information for IT influencers worldwide Computerworld's award winning Web site Computerworld.com twice monthly publication focused conference series and custom research form the hub of the world's largest global IT media network Peterson's Guide to Engineering, Science, and Computer Jobs, 1983 Sandra Grundfest, 1983 What Color Is Your Parachute? for College Katharine Brooks, EdD, 2021-04-06 An indispensable guide for college students adapted from the world's most popular and bestselling career book What Color Is Your Parachute? What Color Is Your Parachute for College is the only guide you need for making the most of your college career from start to finish Based on the bestselling job hunting system in the world created by Richard N Bolles it covers deciding on a major designing a four year plan with your interests and values in mind creating impactful social media developing a resume that stands out in a crowd and making invaluable connections to the workplace Filled with introspective activities designed to bring out your unique skills and knowledge for interviews resumes and cover letters this book provides easy to follow templates rubrics and lists to help you create the best possible social media platform including LinkedIn You'll discover how to leverage your skills and experiences throughout college to start your future whether that means landing a meaningful internship and making the most of it finding your first job continuing on to graduate school or taking a gap year Whatever your future plans What Color Is Your Parachute for College will get you there After the Pandemic Randy Whitaker, 2022-10-10 Many things define a job seeker experience education first impressions connections passion and the value you might bring to the company you wish to work for For decades the perceived ideal candidate would have all of the above most of the above however a good candidate would have a four year college degree To a great extent an employer still would like someone with a four year college degree However I believe this is changing The need for those who work with their hands and those who are willing to work their way up through the various levels of an organization is becoming more and more desired by companies The time it will take you to earn your degree you could be making a nice living and will have accrued zero debt in the process Plus after working in an industry of your choice something you do have an interest in even a passion for you may be on equal footing with a newly hired college grad based on the four years you have been working in your industry of choice as you continue to work your way up through the company You will find the more value you bring to a company the more they will look to you to assume great responsibility Typically the more responsibility the greater the paycheck What makes this book timely is the fact as COVID 19

winds down we are seeing many labor shortages in many areas and industries Now is the absolute best time to go to an industry experiencing a labor shortage or enter one of the numerous industries researched in this book and get yourself the job you always wanted without the cost and time involved with getting a four year college education I have nothing against getting a degree and there are still many fields where they will always be mandatory however the trades service industries government railroads law enforcement plus many others will welcome you with open arms without the need for a four year degree I hope this book helps
