Meyer, 2020-04-07 Master s Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Miscellaneous grade 1 0 University of G ttingen Philosophische Fakult t language English abstract At the beginning of the year 2010 movie critic Bob Mondello triumphantly declared It s going to be another musical decade noting the way the previous ten years have prompted a movie musical resurgence paving the road for a bright music filled future When looking at the history of musicals over the course of time this does not always seem to be the case In spite of the fact that the film musical was an audience favorite during its Golden Age era 1927 until the mid 1950s and celebrating great successes such as 42nd Street 1933 or Singin in the Rain 1952 it seems to have deteriorated in quality and reputation Since recent movie musicals apparently have hit a different more successful nerve with audiences the question is why the genre now sees an uplift in box office numbers Which elements of recent movie musicals keep audiences glued to the screen How do they work in tapping into audiences emotions prompting them to participate This thesis will be influenced by the methodology of reception study scholar Janet Staiger Staiger s 1992 Interpreting Film Studies in the Historical Reception of American Cinema and Perverse Spectators 2000 reconsider the way audiences make sense of films With her historical materialist approach taking into account all traces of audiences interacting with filmic material she sets out to find an understanding of why certain films prove to be successful with audiences at certain times Kemper She investigates the modes of address and exhibition establishes the identities and interpretative strategies and tactics brought by spectators to the cinema and acknowledges cultural groups such as fans who produce their own conventionalized modes of reception 23 emphasis in original It is the purpose of this thesis then to take up the approach of looking at the contact zone Kemper between films and audiences in order to investigate filmic addresses fostering audience engagement In doing so an assortment of recent film musicals that have achieved considerable box office success including Moulin Rouge Across the Universe Hairspray and Mamma Mia will be analyzed with regard to particular addresses picked up by audiences thereby creating the event of movie going The central question investigated here then asks Which elements of a particular film are focused on by critical reports and how do these elements shape the movie going experience participation and engagement of viewers
