Redefining Theory and Practice to Guide Social Transformation: Emerging Research and Opportunities

Fisher-Yoshida, Beth,Camilo Lopez, Joan,2020-12-25 The application of theory to practice in addressing social transformation still has a lot of room for growth and improvement This is also true of theory being informed by practice Too often there are gaps between what is studied in the academy and what is needed in the field The academy develops theories in isolation from the everyday lives of people especially in post conflict environments Communities seeking innovative ways to address their social needs can benefit from the learning of theories and research conducted within academia At the same time these methods need to be relevant to the local contexts within which they are being used While there are certain norms of communication in the academy of how research is conducted and disseminated there needs to be a translation into practical terms to be used in the field Redefining Theory and Practice to Guide Social Transformation Emerging Research and Opportunities addresses the need practitioners and social change agents have in finding processes and practices to use in the field to engage with and transform communities This critical reference book provides an innovative fieldwork method that leads to social transformation and suggests ways to further develop the relationship between academic theories and practices around social conflicts with the existing local knowledge The chapters include mini case studies that have been developed over the years from the authors work with youth and community leaders with the objective of providing a methodology that allows practitioners to approach the field by engaging with local actors in ways that are generative and trustworthy yet rigorous While highlighting the practices notions and technologies that are at work in conflict post conflict or transitioning out of conflict settings by local community leaders this book is ideally for practitioners in the field of conflict peacebuilding and social and conflict transformation community leaders and social organizers as well as practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in social transformation Business ,1904
