Multidisciplinary Approach to Diversity and Inclusion in the COVID-19-Era Workplace Hynes, Rilla, Aquino, Carlos Tasso, Hauer, Josephine, 2022-02-25 Empathy diversity inclusion and soft skills are key building blocks of an innovative workforce challenged to respond to the ever growing needs of the COVID 19 era Organizations that value diversity and inclusion are looking for ways to manage the shift of workers and skills from traditional manufacturing to the 21st century vision by incorporating new technology and tools In this new model a diverse workforce is necessary as creativity and innovation grow from the skills that differentiate humans Further research into the next steps for using diversity and inclusion in an efficient manner discovering and training new skill sets and building sustainability into the creative process is needed to fully embrace this new era of inclusion Multidisciplinary Approach to Diversity and Inclusion in the COVID 19 Era Workplace highlights best practices of successful companies in the new normal conditions caused by the pandemic and provides innovative research on diversity and inclusion to help organizations navigate the changing competitive global environment Covering a range of topics such as remote work unconscious bias and information literacy it is ideal for professors researchers academicians practitioners human resource professionals industry professionals and students

Work Less Jon Peirce, 2024-01-02 You can't have a healthy economy with an unhealthy work force Work Less proposes ways to reduce work hours and keep workers happier healthier and more productive Recent years have revealed just how stressed out many workers are While the trend to longer hours has been developing for several decades the trend's effects have been aggravated during the pandemic by the growing use of Zoom and other new technologies for meetings with clients customers and co workers Exhausted and fed up today's workers are starting to insist on shorter hours and greater flexibility as to where they do their work There is growing consensus that the forty hour week the norm since the 1940s has outlived its usefulness And there is an urgent need for new work schedules that adequately reflect the far greater intensity of work today as well as the greater family demands on a labour force made up of almost fifty percent women who bear the brunt of domestic duties Work Less offers practical scheduling suggestions to employers and workers and numerous policy options for government policy makers to improve working conditions Human Resource Management Talya Bauer, Berrin

Global Voice #21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21 Out of the Tin Can This spring issue of the Council on Business Society s quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion based articles featured in two sections Business Society and Leadership Management We re delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan This issue s Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience co authored by Richard McCracken Director of The Case Centre the world s leading independent home of the case method and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business Society A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu

Anziani of ESSEC Business School And as usual hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M lissa Guillou Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue with topics covering big data and customer value how to manage remote working designing mentorship programmes TechForGood greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy non financial social and environmental disclosure and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan among others And lastly you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle Out of the Tin Can The temptation is to say that it s up to you to interpret it for there are many interpretations possible Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breath freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol s iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sustainability in Higher Education Wendy M. Purcell, Janet Haddock-Fraser, 2023-01-12 This Handbook illustrates that universities per se and higher education in general are essential to catalyze and action the transformative change needed for sustainability and delivery of the Sustainable Development Goals Part One shows how sustainability can be adopted as a driver of change within higher education institutions HEIs as they react and respond to influencing factors outside the academy Part Two examines how a university working with and for sustainability can influence effect and amplify change beyond the institution working with and through others International contributors explore regional national and international perspectives presenting a variety of critically assessed accounts case studies that reflect different local and national contexts institutional archetypes and academic missions Frameworks of sustainability led transformation are illustrated at the level of the institution executive administrative organization culture place based anchor and student in various countries including Aruba Belgium Brazil Canada Hong Kong Japan Lebanon Nepal New Zealand Nigeria South Africa Spain Uganda United Kingdom and the United States of America The book concludes with a manifesto for change and a call to action It identifies that the sustainability journey of a HEI is influenced by context and place with mission leadership and strategy playing a vital role and change agency by students a key ingredient Recognizing the patience and resolve to effect change communication dialogue and inclusion were central to community building and partnership
