The Spike Garden Jim Hawkins, 2009-11-02 Dogs bark at those with whom we are angry show their teeth to those whom we hate and hump themselves on those that we desire In short they display that which we are not permitted to display by the rules of the veil that calls itself polite society The child can take two paths to creating the adult The first is the path of Pygmalion He carved from ivory a statue that he loved He made offerings and sacrifices and his statue was granted life by Aphrodite Was the statue granted life because Pygmalion's diligence and sculpting skill pleased his patron Or was it the beauty of the statue that pleased her No it was the sacrifices The child must sacrifice much before the gods allow him to become a fully living adult Pygmalion's statue aged and died with him The child is cruelly denied this experience The child must also give up its own life for the adult to live Sometimes one or both of its parents must do the same The second path that the child may take is that of Hephaestus

So It Goes Jeffrey Yeatman, 2024-08-09 There is a disconnect between the sacred and secular worlds that have left many individuals lost in life Similar to wounded animals in the wild we resort to our survival instincts at the sight of blood The psychic wound in an individual will lead to a path of consciousness It is in the healing of our psychic wounds that we come to know ourselves We must embrace the quest for identity and understand that life will break us It is through these dark and challenging times that we are faced with the truth The truth is righteous The truth destroys in order to create a new path a path to find out who we are But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath when his righteous judgment will be revealed Romans 2:5
