African Governance and Development Issues in a World of Change Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu, Catherine Chiugo Kanu, Kanayo Nwadiakor, 2018-08-16 The present work is part of the outcome of the 2018 International Conference of the Association for the Promotion of African Studies which had the theme African ideologies in a world of change Heraclitus of Ephesus an ancient philosopher and one of the important thinkers in human history said that change is the basic law of nature and the condition of all things All things are in a state of flux You cannot step twice into the same river for just as water in a river is ceaselessly changing so are all things in a state of flux In relation to Africas historical experience Alik Shahadah observes that Africa is a continent where cultures have smashed through deserts crossed trade routes traveled through immigration borders disregarding her notions of geography and race and names foods cultures religions genetics have jumped between Asia and Africa etc with blatant disregard for our social constructions The Association for the Promotion of African Studies in her 2018 international conference provided a context for African scholars to study African ideologies in a world of change especially as it concerns politics and development in Africa from a variety of points of view This piece which is a collection of academic papers from seventeen scholars focuses on the processes of change and disorganization of the various traditional social and cultural patterns and organizations and then on the possible recrystallization of some traditional elements within the more modern and differentiated societies

Aluta Continua
Biblical Hermeneutics for Liberation Obvious Vengeyi, Joachim Kügler, 2013 This book was passed as a PhD thesis at Bayreuth University Germany The author challenges African Biblical scholars and Christian leaders to premise Biblical interpretation on the experiences of the often neglected underclasses The author argues that from a comparative historical cultural and material methodological point of view the experiences of the Zimbabwean underclasses whose collective ordeal is represented by the experiences of domestic workers are strikingly similar to those suffered by slaves among other underclasses in the biblical world In the same way religion was appropriated by the elite to validate oppression of the underclasses in the biblical world the author shows that since the colonial era Christianity in Africa through biblical interpretation among many other tactics has been an influential force on the side of the dominant class to advance their racial class and gender interests To date in Zimbabwe for example the Bible and religion in general is manipulated by the dominant minority to justify and entrench the exploitation of the majority underclasses On the other hand the author observes that the history of ancient Israel Roman colonial Palestine and colonial Zimbabwe evidences that when religion is appropriated and or the Bible is read and interpreted from the historical cultural and material conditions of the underclasses it can be a valuable resource not only for their mobilization to overthrow oppressive systems but also for justifying their resistance tactics Aluta Continua The Struggle goes on

Political Pentecostalism Leandro L. B. Fontana, Markus Lubert, 2021-08-13 The last decade has witnessed fundamental shifts in the relationship between religion and politics In this light religious symbols motifs justifications and practices are increasingly noticeable in political discourses as well as agendas particularly in the Global South with Pentecostal Christians standing out as salient actors Performative practices enacted in political contexts such as the anointing of state authorities prophecies warfare prayers etc have drawn the attention of numerous scholars worldwide The four surveys contained in this volume account for these developments in Africa Asia and Latin America and synoptically engage with the following question Can any meaningful nexus connecting multiple and apparently isolated nodes of Pentecostal engagement in the political sphere around the globe be identified In addition they do the groundwork for drawing parallels on a global level on the basis of which new light can be shed on fundamental changes in Pentecostal actorhood and self understanding Thus local developments and ethnographic studies are for the first time reflected upon from a global perspective
