Demonstrative Proof in Defence of God Nils Arne Pedersen, 2020-10-26 This volume is the first extensive study of a Christian work from the 4th century Titus of Bostra's Contra Manichaeos which is the only text from the early Greek Church setting out a comprehensive theodicy The study illuminates the text's relation to contemporary theology and philosophy and interprets it in the light of the ideological conflicts between pagans Catholic Christians and Manichaeans in the 4th century It includes an examination of the possible Manichaean sources used by Titus and furthermore a critical text study and translation of central passages in Contra Manichaeos based both on the Greek text and the Syriac version of it The

Manichaeism in the Later Roman Empire Nicholas Baker-Brian, 2009 The book is the first monograph length study of Augustine's Contra Adimantum and demonstrates that despite previous neglect of the work by Patristic scholars a full appreciation of Augustine's reaction to the Manichaean exegesis of the Bible is essential in understanding the development of Augustine's early theology The Church Missionary Intelligencer, 1893 British Librarian, Or Book-collectors Guide to the Formation of a Library in All Branches of Literature (etc.) William Thomas Lowndes, 1842 Occasional Papers on Scriptural Subjects. no. 1-4 Benjamin Wills NEWTON, 1861 Church Missionary Intelligencer and Record, 1893

Works of Benjamin Wills Newton Benjamin Wills Newton, 1882 The Syriac Versions of the Writings of Cyril of Alexandria Daniel King, 2008 This study presents an analysis of the Syriac translations of Cyril of Alexandria's Christological works seeking to locate them in their literary context on the basis of a comparative typology of translation technique and by making full use of Biblical citations and parallel citations in other texts The texts in question range from the middle of the fifth to the middle of the sixth century and are closely comparable to other contemporary documents The decades either side of the turn of the sixth century are shown as the key period in which Syriac translators developed a new vision of their language and its capabilities More widely the translations in question are used to illuminate parallel developments in late antique culture in matters of textual authority the exegesis of patristic texts and the development of Florilegia The Syrian church's new vision of language use can be observed in other walks of life across and represents a typical late antique phenomenon British Librarian; Or, Book-collector's Guide ...
