

В рамках декади професійної майстерності 21 березня в групах електрослюсарів підземних 11/18, 21/17, 22/17, 31 /17 класні керівники провели виховні години на тему «Поезія шахтарської праці».

Всесвітній день поезії.

Традиційно 21 березня легендарний Пегас повністю розправляє свої прекрасні крила для всіх віршомазів світу. І навіть самі музи поезії Ерато і Евтерпа в цей день щедро обдаровують натхненням кожного поета, змушуючи всіх поціновувачів творчості схилитися перед цим чудовим талантом.

Всесвітній день поезії, офіційно заснований ЮНЕСКО, вперше був відзначений в 2000 році. Свято спрямований на відродження віршованій культури, прилучення до творчої діяльності широких мас населення, популяризацію поезії через засоби масової інформації. Незважаючи на те, що Всесвітній день поезії - свято досить молодий, відзначають його досить широко і в США, і в Європі, і, звичайно ж, в Україні. У цей день прийнято влаштовувати вечори в літературних клубах, зустрічі з читачами, на які приходять як маститі, так і початківці поети. Урочисто відзначають свято не тільки поети і їхні читачі, а й філологічні факультети вищих навчальних закладів, багато шкіл, видавництва літературних журналів, альманахів і газет.

Учні познайомилися з поетами, які присвятили свою музу шахтарям Донбасу.

«Ні!»

*Зоряні стежиночки на небі,
Як алмазні розсити роси.
Я іду, співаючи про тебе,
Про русьві довгі дві коси.
Я іду, співаючи про очі,
Що палахкотять, немов вогні.
Та вони замріяної ночі
Коротко сказали мені: «Ні!»*

*І відразу зорі почорніли,
Ніч злизала стежки росяні.
А в душі палало і палило
Крижане, жорстоке слово
«Ні!»*

Gheith, 2002-07-11 A History of Women's Writing in Russia offers a comprehensive account of the lives and works of Russia's women writers Based on original and archival research this volume forces a re examination of many of the traditionally held assumptions about Russian literature and women's role in the tradition In setting about the process of reintegrating women writers into the history of Russian literature contributors have addressed the often surprising contexts within which women's writing has been produced Chapters reveal a flourishing literary tradition where none was thought to exist They redraw the map defining Russia's literary periods they look at how Russia's women writers articulated their own experience and they reassess their relationship to the dominant male tradition The volume is supported by extensive reference features including a bibliography and guide to writers and their works Russian Prose Writers After World War II Christine Rydel, 2005 Whether the writers in this period described the war the Great Terror the gulag

experience exile repression or simply everyday life in the city or in the country they generally turned to a major theme of Russian literature since the Revolution the fate of the individual human being in a mass state In the literature often the state won due to its power at other times individuals triumphed because of their moral convictions The same can be said of these writers

The Hand at Work Susanne Strätling, 2021-12-14 Art New Vision This formula shaped the avant garde With moving images abruptly expanding the boundaries of the visible world new printing techniques triggering a pictorial turn in graphic art and literature becoming almost inseparable from visual media we still regard the avant garde as heyday for modernism's obsession with the eye But what are the blind spots of this optocentrism Focusing on the gestures of giving touching showing and handcrafting this study examines key scenes of tactile interaction between subject and artifact Hand movements manual maneuvers and manipulations challenge optics and expose the crises of a visually dominated perspective on the arts The readings of this book call for a revision of an optically obscured aesthetics and poetics to include haptic experience as an often overlooked but pivotal part of the making as well as the perception of literature and the arts

The Same Solitude Catherine Ciepiela, 2018-09-05 Still we have the same solitude the same journeys and searching and the same favorite turns in the labyrinth of literature and history Boris Pasternak to Marina Tsvetaeva One of the most compelling episodes of twentieth century Russian literature involves the epistolary romance that blossomed between the modernist poets Marina Tsvetaeva and Boris Pasternak in the 1920s Only weeks after Tsvetaeva emigrated from Russia in 1922 Pasternak discovered her poetry and sent her a letter of praise and admiration Tsvetaeva's enthusiastic response began a decade long affair conducted entirely through letters This correspondence written across the widening divide separating Soviet Russia from Russian migrants in continental Europe offers a view into the overlapping worlds of literary creativity sexual identity and political affiliation Following both sides of their conversation Catherine Ciepiela charts the poets changing relations to each other to the extraordinary political events of the period and to literature itself The Same Solitude presents the first full account of this affair of letters and poems from its beginning in the summer of 1922 to its denouement in the 1930s Drawing on many previously untranslated letters and poems Ciepiela describes the poets mutual influence both in the course of their lives and the development of their art Neither poet saw any separation between a poet's life and work and Ciepiela treats each poet's letters and poems as a single text She discusses the poets famous triangular correspondence with Rainer Maria Rilke in 1926 and she addresses the profound significance of Tsvetaeva for Pasternak who is often perceived mistakenly Ciepiela asserts as the more detached partner Further this book expands our understanding of poetic modernism by showing how the poets worked through ideas about gender and writing in the context of what they themselves called a literary marriage
