Denis Glover His Life:

Denis Glover Gordon Ogilvie, 1999-01-01 Denis Glover is one of New Zealand's outstanding literary figures This first comprehensive biography investigates the turbulent life of this celebrated poet typographer publisher wit sportsman and war hero and offers an illuminating portrayal of the New Zealand cultural scene during its most vital decades Denis Glover His Life presents a multi faceted individual with an almost Elizabethan breadth of talents and enthusiasms whose boistrous bibulous aggressive unpredictable extroverted and frequently scandalous behaviour masked a sensitive personality of considerable complexity Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Simply by Sailing in a New Direction Terry Sturm, 2017-09-29 Allen Curnow 1911 2001 was at the time of his death regarded as one of the greatest of all poets writing in English For seventy years from Valley of Decision 1933 to The Bells of Saint Babel s 2001 Curnow s poetry was always on the move from his early approaches to New Zealand identity and myth to later work concerned with the philosophical encounter between word and world Curnow also played a major role in New Zealand life as editor critic commentator and anthologist as well as a much loved writer of light verse under the penname of Whim Wham In his later years he acquired an impressive international reputation winning the Commonwealth Prize for Poetry and the Queen's Gold Medal for Poetry Throughout his lifetime Allen Curnow revised selected and collected his poetry in various ways For the first time this collection brings together all of the poems that Curnow collected in his lifetime grouped in their original volumes The notes reproduce Curnow's comments on individual poems and include relevant editorial guidance This is the definitive collection of work by New Zealand's most distinguished poet Letters of Denis Glover Sarah Shieff, 2021-01-31 Denis Glover could be witty intelligent alarmingly frank and frequently highly entertaining A widely admired poet honoured naval commander gifted printer and typographer Denis Glover was founder of the Caxton Press in Christchurch For 15 years from 1935 he directed a publishing programme that did much to define New Zealand literature for its day and for much of the rest of the century His literary work was suspended for war service in the New Zealand Division of the Royal Navy during which he earned a DSC for his activities in the Normandy landings But he was also a serial philanderer and prodigious drinker and his private life increasingly disintegrated around him more and more publicly And yet his energy as a correspondent appeared never to wane and almost to the end he confided openly prolifically and entertainingly to hundreds of acquaintances and confidants In this magnificent volume Sarah Shieff presents around 500 of Glover's letters to around 110 people drawn from an archive of nearly 3000 letters to over 430 recipients Picking Up the Traces Lawrence Jones, 2003 The story of the generation of New Zealand writers who came of age in the 1930s and who deliberately and decisively changed the course of literature is told in this book shedding important new light on the key participants including Allen Curnow Denis Glover and Robin Hyde The movement is traced through small circulation magazines and small press publications from 1932 to 1941 The repudiations and loyalties by which the movement defined itself are explored including its opposition to the literary establishment and to late Georgian verse its naming of its precursors and allies from the 1920s and its choice of overseas models such as the British Moderns and the new American short story writers for the creation of a new literature oppose the cultural myths supported by the literary establishment and the writers responses to the world wide social upheavals of the period the Depression the international crises of 1935 to 1939 and World War II .2005 The Writer at Work Christian Karlson Stead, 2000 Into this volume C K Stead gathers a selection of his essays from the past decade mixing literary criticism with autobiography He reviews the work of other writers meditates on the teaching of literature revisits some controversies and explores literary history Always interesting the essays travel through time and space from Janet Frame to Barry Humphries birthday to Paul Theroux and telling the truth to Shelley's Constantia on a brilliant carpet of scholarship and wit The Nationbuilders B. H. Easton, 2001 Rather an unexpected book from an economist this grew out of entries for The Dictionary of New Zealand Biography by Bernard Ashwin Secretary to the Treasury in the 1940s and 1950s and Bill Sutch Secretary of Industries and Commerce in the 1950s and 1960s It is a collection of linked essays on individuals and companies in the years from 1931 to 1984 who contributed in major ways to building a New Zealand nation It aims to capture the intertwining of the lives of politicians their advisers and those who influenced them as well as the ideas and experiences which drove them New Zealand Slavonic Journal .2002 Arawata Bill Ian Dougherty, 2000 Arawata Bill 1865 1947 was a pioneering folk hero He spent decades in the unforgiving mountain country of New Zealand's South Island prospecting for gold and other minerals and making new tracks in unexplored areas His astonishing feats of endurance and tenacity coupled with his charming eccentricity have captured the imagination of generations and Denis Glover immortalised him in his famous poem Arawata Bill Recently a Californian Country Rock act have added his story to their ballads This new edition of Ian Dougherty's landmark biography includes information about O Leary s life that has only recently come to light Kiwi Compañeros Mark Derby, 2009 The first ever account of New Zealand's role in the civil war that tore Spain apart during 1936 39 and became a ruthless rehearsal for World War Two From more than 50 countries volunteers arrived in Spain to take sides This book records the actions of the New Zealanders including those who worked for the Spanish cause at home It draws on recently released military documents and previously unpublished photographs to tell the all but forgotten story of those who chose to enter a crucial conflict on the far side of the
