Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,2001 French XX Bibliography William J.

Thompson,2007-09 Provides the listing of books articles and book reviews concerned with French literature since 1885 This is a reference source in the study of modern French literature and culture It contains nearly 8 800 entries Haunted Property Sarah Gilbreath Ford,2020-08-25 Winner of a 2021 South Central Modern Language Association Book Prize At the heart of America s slave system was the legal definition of people as property While property ownership is a cornerstone of the American dream the status of enslaved people supplies a contrasting American nightmare Sarah Gilbreath Ford considers how writers in works from nineteenth century slave narratives to twenty first century poetry employ gothic tools such as ghosts and haunted houses to portray the horrors of this nightmare Haunted Property Slavery and the Gothic thus reimagines the southern gothic which has too often been simply equated with the macabre or grotesque and then dismissed as regional Although literary critics have argued that the American gothic is driven by the nation s history of racial injustice what is missing in this critical conversation is the key role of property Ford argues that out of all of slavery s perils the definition of people as property is the central impetus for haunting because it allows the perpetration of all other terrors Property becomes the engine for the white accumulation of wealth and power fueled by the destruction of black personhood Specters often linger however to claim title and Ford argues that haunting can be a bid for property ownership Through examining works by Harriet Jacobs Hannah Crafts Mark Twain Herman Melville Sherley Anne Williams William Faulkner Eudora Welty Toni Morrison Octavia Butler and Natasha Trethewey Ford reveals how writers can use the gothic to combat legal possession with spectral possession New Waves in Innovation Management Research (ISPIM Insights)

Marcus Tynnhammar,2019-02-02 Launched in 2011 to recognize the prolific contribution that PhD dissertations make to the field of Innovation Management the ISPIM Dissertation Award selects three winners from the possible 100 entries every year Aided in the selection process by the generous support of Innovation Leaders the ISPIM presents the awards at their annual Innovation Conference With only three finalists being selected each year many excellent submissions do not receive the recognition they deserve To rectify this the 2018 ISPIM Dissertation Award cast its spotlight beyond the top three dissertations and onto a much greater number of entries Compiling the top 28 submissions received this year New Waves in Innovation Management Research is organized into six thematic sections that cover areas such as investments collaboration and creativity Presenting a broad range of case studies and data from across global this edited volume illustrates the breadth of research potential in the coming wave of innovation management This book will be of interest to students researchers and professional managers alike who are interested in or actively involved in the latest research on innovation management

International Institutions in World History Laust Schouenborg,2016-12-08 The discipline of IR has always suffered from a parochial occupation with the state and the Western system of states This book presents a case for a basic reorientation of IR away from the state and towards the study of social institutions in the sense of patterned practices ideas and norms rules The argument is that the state is an inherently modern phenomenon a modern social institution and that foundational concepts in IR should be based on a full appreciation of the wider record of human existence on earth trans historically and cross culturally This book will interest scholars and students within IR particularly IR theory anthropology archaeology and sociology
