Departures How Australia Reinvents Itself:

Human Rights in Twentieth-Century Australia Jon Piccini, 2019-10-10 Human rights in Australia have a contested and controversial history the nature of which informs popular debates to this day

Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand Ben Goldsmith, Geoff Lealand, 2010-12-15 This addition to Intellect's Directory of World Cinema series turns the spotlight on Australia and New Zealand and offers an in depth and exciting look at the cinema produced in these two countries since the turn of the twentieth century Though the two nations share considerable cultural and economic connections their film industries remain distinct marked by differences of scale level of government involvement and funding and relations with other countries and national cinemas Through essays about prominent genres and themes profiles of directors and comprehensive reviews of significant titles this user friendly guide explores the diversity and distinctiveness of films from Australia and New Zealand from Whale Rider to The Piano to Wolf Creek

Lawscape Nicole Graham, 2010-07-07 Addressing law's relationship to land and natural resources through its property regime Lawscape Property Environment Law considers the ways in which property law transforms both natural environments and social economies

Agitate, Educate, Organise, Legislate Ellen Warne, 2017-07-17 After successfully agitating for the vote for women from the 1890s Protestant women's organisations in Australia began to educate women at a grassroots level on effective ways of applying political pressure on a wide range of topics and social concerns Positioning their organisations as non party political and separate from more overtly feminist groups the Woman's Christian Temperance Union WCTU the Young Women's Christian Association YWCA and the Mothers Union attracted women who were keen to work for change and who were seeking to save the individual as well as the greater society These three organisations sought to agitate on a wide range of issues related to girls and women connecting with public anxieties and highlighting particular vulnerabilities of girls and young women who lived alone in the city and had the potential to be exploited in the workforce By the 1920s and 1930s these women's groups noted with concern the easier access to divorce and birth control in the Soviet Union and the growing influence of both Communism and Hitlerism in galvanising young people Agitate Educate Organise Legislate explores the colourful debates and anxieties that were prevalent from the 1890s to the 1930s and the responses of the key women's organisations whose leadership and campaigns acknowledged that outside of parliament and party politics women's connection to political matters could be both innovative and socially influential

New Earth Histories Alison Bashford, Emily M. Kern, Adam Bobbette, 2023-11-06 This book brings the history of the geosciences and world cosmologies together exploring many traditions including Chinese South and Southeast Asian Pacific Islamic and Indigenous conceptions of earth's origin and makeup Together the chapters ask How have different ideas about the sacred animate and earthly changed modern environmental science How have different world traditions understood human and geological origins How does the inclusion of multiple cosmologies change the meaning of the Anthropocene and the ongoing global climate crisis By thinking carefully through and with other cosmologies New Earth Histories sets a new agenda for history The chapters consider debates about the age and structure of the earth how humans and earth systems interact and empire is conceived in multiple traditions The methods the authors deploy are diverse from cultural history visual and material studies and ethnography to name a few and the effect is to highlight how earth knowledge emerged from historically specific situations New Earth Histories provides both a framework for studying science at a global scale and fascinating examples to educate as well as inspire future work Essential reading for students and scholars of earth science history environmental humanities history of science and religion and science and empire

Slicing the Silence Tom Griffiths, 2007 The author reflects on his experiences exploring Antarctica the last true wilderness

Colonial Psychosocial David Crouch, 2015-01-12 A small bespectacled man with impressive moustaches and a devastating way with words William Lane was at first delighted with the pliant disposition of the society he found emerging in the colonies of Australia The nascent nation was awash with radical ideas and inherited bigotries but also obsessed with itself and uneasy about its own place and composition To this combustible atmosphere Lane contributed all the excesses of his blistering rhetoric and seductive hyperbole he mesmerised his audience with all the things it feared Colonial Psychosocial traverses the darkness of colonial cities descriptions of opium dens and Fan Tan gambling rooms tales of race war and the morbid textual dissections of alien interlopers it delves into vicious narratives of invasion and expulsion inscrutable crowds and rioting mobs Through the focus provided by Lane's life and writing the book traces phantasmagorias of deformity disease and degenerative decline it considers the fate of the workingman's paradise a miscellanea of socialist nationalist and utopian delusion and the disorienting appearance of modernity in the colonial laboratory It follows the dictatorship and demise of New Australia a settlement in Paraguay based on purity of blood and closes with the violence and idealism of a transnational twilight in New Zealand Lane helped shape a lexicon of exclusion and denial that suffused the colonies His divisive social commentary fed a fantasy of Australia that became the persistent rationale for aggressive assertions of identity Through Lane this study develops a way of approaching the historically situated and discursively shaped anxieties that were invigorated by the uncertainties bred at the edges of empire distilled in a pervasive lexicon of race thinking and made part of far wider technologies of social control

Annual Report on English and American Studies, 2002

Departures Xavier Pons, 2002 A collection of essays by various Australian and European authors on a wide range of Australian cultural topics this is a story of struggle and achievement and occasional failure Departures deals with innovation and transgression in Australian literature and history and brings out the vitality of Australian culture as it meets new challenges

Australian Film Adi Wimmer, Adolf Wimmer, 2007

The State of the North Tess Lea, Bill Wilson, 2005 The State of the North is it the future of an increasingly environmentally challenged mainstream Australia Or a failed colonial outpost already showing signs of its use by date in its dependence on imported resources for survival Does being the gateway to Asia leave residents with a moral responsibility for setting Australia's policy on emergency migration or is our inability to influence policy a simple reminder of the Northern Territory's dependency on the federation. Will becoming a state lend us any weight in the national body politic? Such questions inspire this collection of papers from the Charles Darwin Symposia Series for 2003 and are collected here to mark an important historic moment in the description of Territory issues. With clear and purposeful think pieces from such key contemporary commentators as Mandawuy Yunupingu, Tim Flannery, Glenn Withers, Paul Dibb, Andrew Wilkie and Gillian Cowlshaw, this volume should be of use to policy makers and concerned members of the public alike. Tess Lea is the Director of the School for Social and Policy Research within the Institute of Advanced Studies at Charles Darwin University. Bill Wilson is a Senior Advisor Support and Equity Services at Charles Darwin University, an historian and expert in issues of politics and policing.

New reckonings
 Leigh Dale, Brigid Rooney, 2007 Degenerates and Perverts Eileen Chanin, Judith Pugh, Steven Miller, 2005 An account of an exhibition that brought the Australian public face to face for the first time with the experimental art that had been developing in Europe during the early decades of the 20th century. The 1939 Herald Exhibition was the first blockbuster exhibition to come to Australia.

Bibliographic Index, 2006 Australian Book Review, 2002 Ways of Seeing China Timothy David Kendall, 2005 As the People's Republic of China continues to become the subject of intense political, cultural and economic interest, Ways of Seeing China offers a timely critique of the ways that Australians have seen China. The book offers the specialist and non-specialist a highly readable history of the Australia-China relationship thirty years after establishment of diplomatic relations. Kendall draws on a diverse range of materials including novels, government documents, ASIO dossiers, travelogues, public polls, politicians' pronouncements and oral history to convincingly argue that we continually recycle six storytelling forms, all of which use ethnocentric and orientalist fears to enunciate various truths or ways of seeing cultural and political difference. The three cultural storytelling forms are the fear of invasion, captivity and adventure, and the three political forms are containment, engagement and multiculturalism.

Westerly, 2002 Media International Australia, 1999 Kürschners deutscher Gelehrten-Kalender, 2009 Each volume includes Wissenschaftliche Zeitschriften Diversity Itself Peter Quartermaine, 1986 Articles about resistance to invasion and rock art by H. Reynolds and F. Gale and J. Jacobs annotated separately.
