Depression Has No Heart:

A Study on the Influence of Chloroform Upon the Respiration & Circulation... Hobart Amory Hare, 1893 Depression Has No Heart Loreena Mary Minaudo, 2005-11-01 If I didn't have my mind set on calling this book Depression Has No Heart I would have titled it Im Not Alone Did you know that more than 22 million Americans are suffering from depression Mental disorders now account for 4 of the 10 leading causes of disability in established market economies worldwide If not for my affliction called cerebral palsy I would not have a story to tell because many doctors and psychiatrists would not have diagnosed it as depression Unfortunately due to having a speech impairment the medical field was ignorant regarding my symptoms of depression I hope my story opens the eyes of all the current medical students Personality Disorders and States of Aloneness John G. McGraw, 2012-01-01 This book is the second volume of an interdisciplinary study chiefly one of philosophy and psychology which concerns personality especially the abnormal in terms of states of aloneness primarily that of the negative emotional isolation customarily known as loneliness Other states of aloneness investigated include solitude reclusiveness seclusion desolation isolation and what the author terms aloneliness alonism lonism and lonerism Insofar as this study most explicitly focuses on abnormal personalities it employs the general and specific definitions of personality aberrations as formulated by the American Psychiatric Association in its latest edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders DSM IV The author views personality as preeminently comprised of the individual's interpersonal relationships Unlike the DSM IV he proposes that people with personality disorders not only possibly but necessarily manifest deviancy regarding interpersonal functioning via serious shortcomings in shared inwardness paramountly reciprocated intimacy This work also engages in an analysis of five social factors that are conducive to predisposing precipitating and maintaining negative kinds of personality and aloneness The author has formed these factors into an acronym titled SCRAM since when they are present intimacy scurries away and in its absence loneliness and other sorts of unwanted aloneness scamper in and fill the person with unhappiness via for instance sadness and self-worthlessness The constituents of SCRAM are the following social illnesses Successitis for example the fixation on fame and fortune Capitalitis greed-driven unfettered capitalism Rivalitis competitiveness Atomitis hyper-individualism and Materialitis for example the anti-spirituality of consumeritis In sum this book provides a different perspective on personality via the lenses of various types of aloneness and their lack of public and private intimacy especially love The Medical and Surgical Reporter, 1893 California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Journal of the American Institute of Homeopathy, 1924 Therapeutic Gazette, 1883 Pharmacotherapeutics, Materia Medica and Drug Action Solomon Solis-Cohen, Thomas Stotesbury Githens, 1928 A Reference Handbook of the Medical Sciences Embracing the Entire Range of Scientific and Practical Medicine and Allied Science, 1900 The Bookman, 1906 The North American Review, 1895 The Lancet, 1895 Journal of Materia Medica, 1889

Boston Medical and Surgical Journal ,1902 Herald and Presbyter ,1908 Body Psychotherapy Vassilis Christodoulou,2018-10-01 In some cases the traumas spring up in front of us like targets created long ago that cannot be ignored In many cases however we will have to do some groundwork we will have to clear the way to dis mantle obstacles blocking our path or to build to create supports and bridges to open up the way to the trauma and to healing A balanced person is a healthy person and a state of dynamic equilibrium is a healthy state to be in Whatever upsets the balance however deep down in the darkness of the unconscious it may be will show signs of life The longer we turn down the invitation to confront the trauma the more formidable the challenge of taking a fresh look at a case we thought had closed will seem Once our tendency to flee as quickly as we could from the pain of the trauma was the right response and indeed may even have saved us Now however we have different capabilities and more choices We hang on like survivors of a shipwreck to the old rickety raft battered by the stormy seas of our childhood and fail to see the calm waters we are now heading towards The tried and tested for mula that once saved us is no longer essential or the right method to use when both we and the world around us have changed When we refuse to recognise a simple feeling of malaise as a harbinger of something else we can expect other less persistent but clearly more effective states to follow panic attacks with sudden bolts from the blue the depression that deprives us of the joy of living the phobias that restrict our living space and other physical illnesses that desperately try before the final embrace of death to let us know what is happening in the depths of our being These are the things that restrict us and inspire fear in us yet these are also the things that speak to us of new pathways and possibilities Will we remain in the familiar security that the child clings to or will we as adults take the frightened child by the hand and with the therapy we offer lead it out into the light of day The Village Comedy Mortimer Collins,1883
