Der Butt:

Günter Grass's Der Butt Philip Brady, Timothy McFarland, John J. White, 1990 Although Gunter Grass's novel Der Butt was one of his most important and best known works it has not received the critical acclaim enjoyed by his other novels. These seven essays address the complexity of Der Butt's criss-crossing themes and nebulous narrator who throughout the story fluctuates between a bizarre past and the present. Based on a series of discussions that explore the key issues and techniques of Der Butt the essays present individual perspectives on Grass's artistry and provide new insight into the meaning of the heart of the novel the interplay of history and sexual warfare. Karl Friedrich Schinkel, Charlottenhof, Potsdam-Sanssouci Heinz Schonemann, Karl Friedrich Schinkel, Reinhard Gerner, 1997 The palace set on a severe garden axis was built from 1826 to 1829. It was followed from 1829 to 1840 by the freely developing area of the Hofgärtnerhaus and its adjacent facilities all of which has become known as the Roman Baths. The Crown Prince involved himself in the planning process contributing over 100 sketches. He called Charlottenhof my Siam understood as a synonym for a better world and he was pursuing with it his intention of presenting his own future style of government based on romantic theories of the state and striving for a harmonious balance of all classes and interests. Charlottenhof is Schinkel's only work to have survived complete inside and outside surrounded by Lenn's landscape garden which has also been carefully looked after and preserved. The Communicative Event in the Works of Günter Grass Nicole A. Thesz, 2018 A major contribution to Grass scholarship that looks at his career as a whole and identifies four phases or stages of his writing in terms of communicative strategy and style. Adventures of a Flounder Gertrud Bauer Pickar, 1982 The Narrative Works of Günter Grass Noel Thomas, 1982-01-01 This study provides a critical analysis of the narrative works of Günter Grass under which Die Blechtrommel, Katz und Mann, Hundejahre und Der Butt. It is of interest to everyone who wants to get a better understanding of the novels of this famous German writer. A Concise Etymological Dictionary of the English Language Walter William Skeat, 1901 Günter Grass's Use of Baroque Literature Alexander Weber, 1995 This is the first study to discuss the affinity between Grass's complete works and baroque literature. Grass's employment of baroque literature is of particular interest because it takes up a tradition from which German literature has long broken away. Alexander Weber's argument moves from an outline of general thematic parallels in the early works to an analysis of the conscious use of baroque literature in Der Butt and Das Treffen in Telgte. He offers both a close reading of Grass and general reflections on how a past literary tradition can be adopted by a modern writer. The study focuses on the themes of vanity, carpe diem and Senecan Stoicism in the early works; it discusses parallels between the rhetorical structure of the courtly historical novel and Der Butt and traces the artist's melancholy and baroque allegories in Der Butt and Das Treffen in Telgte. People who Laugh Adair Welcker, 1904      A Concise Etymological Dictionary of the English Language Skeat, 1890      The Silenced Vision Constantin V. Ponomareff, 1979 This essay explores the historical impact of war and totalitarianism on the literary imagination of several major Soviet Russian and West German writers The painful experience which has become muted in this fiction is articulated through a second more subconscious and metaphorical language It is this subliminal poetic voice in the works of Borchert Aitmatov Grass Pasternak and Nossack which provides us with a heightened sense of the spiritual condition of European man and the nature of modern and contemporary European writing      "The Fisherman and His Wife" Siegfried Mews, 1983 Grass said The Flounder is about women and food but it is also about women and war including what women have done against war unfortunately mostly silence Regarding his view on the human sexes and its influence on the novel Grass said Most women who read the book all the way through like it Those in the women's liberation movement who say there is no difference between men and women don't like it I like the difference I hate those who don't like the difference between men and women      The Insurance Herald, 1905      *Englisch-deutsches Supplement-Lexikon. 2., umgearb.
