Der Chinese:

The Chinese Times ,1888      Chinese Circulations Eric Tagliacozzo,Wen-chin Chang,2011-04-13 This collection of twenty essays provides an unprecedented overview of Chinese trade through the centuries highlighting its scope diversity complexity and the commodities that have linked it with Southeast Asia      The Hypothetical Mandarin Sympathy, Modernity, and Chinese Pain Eric Hayot,2009-11-05 Why has the West for so long and in so many different ways expressed the idea that the Chinese have a special relationship to cruelty and to physical pain What can the history of that idea and its expressions teach us about the politics of the West s contemporary relation to China And what does it tell us about the philosophy of modernity The Hypothetical Mandarin is in some sense a history of the Western imagination It is also a history of the interactions between Enlightenment philosophy of globalization of human rights and of the idea of the modern Beginning with Bianchon and Rastignac s discussion of whether the former would if he could obtain a European fortune by killing a Chinese mandarin in Balzac s Le Pere Goriot 1835 the book traces a series of literary and historical examples in which Chinese life and European sympathy seem to hang in one another s balance Hayots wide ranging discussion draws on accounts of torture on medical case studies travelers tales photographs plasticized corpses polemical broadsides watercolors and on oil paintings His analyses show that the historical connection between sympathy and humanity and indeed between sympathy and reality has tended to refract with a remarkable frequency through the lens called China and why the story of the West s Chinese pain goes to the heart of the relation between language and the body and the social experience of the modern human being Written in an ebullient prose The Hypothetical Mandarin demonstrates how the network that intertwines China sympathy and modernity continues to shape the economic and human experience      Neighbors and Neighborhoods Yael Almog,Erik Born,2012-03-15 Neighbors and Neighborhoods Living Together in the German Speaking World is a bilingual collection of nine essays on culture film language literature and theory The essays in this collection address questions of community and cohesion in the modern German speaking world a complex sociolinguistic community that is no longer defined by territorial boundaries but that remains in many respects a neighborhood How can neighborliness be possible for this world in an age of mass migration and increasing globalization Given the fluidity of modern identity what could make communities uniform harmonious or even cohesive if they can be created and dissolved in an instant To what extent do modern technology and mass communication facilitate and or inhibit the ability to inhabit multiple cultures and multiple worlds Examining the specific constitution of the modern German speaking world this volume contributes to recent scholarship in critical theory on the figure of the neighbor and the biblical injunction to love one s neighbor as oneself The essays in this volume proceeding in a roughly chronological order expose how images of neighbors and neighborhoods have developed in the German speaking world over the course of the twentieth century The examination of these developments should enrich both the study of multiculturalism and trans nationalism in German Studies and that of subjectivity and political theology in critical theory Offering a wide range of approaches to one critical topic the essays in this volume will be useful to students and scholars in the fields of German Studies cultural studies language and literature and film and media especially those with an interest in secularism and globalization The Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal ,1899
