Dengs Generation Young Intellectuals In 1980s China

Jia Gao

Dengs Generation Young Intellectuals In 1980s China:

Deng's Generation Ruth Cherrington, 2016-07-27 A sociological biography of the 1980s generation of young intellectuals in China It applies Mannheim's generational perspective to first hand data to show how students and scholars in the 1980s were influenced by the reform context and policies of Deng Xiaoping's regime The key trends in their thinking and behaviour within the spheres of education leisure and politics are analysed leading to an account of their socio economic situation and frustrated hopes in the run up to the 1989 pro democracy movement

Social Mobilisation in Post-Industrial China Jia Gao, Yuanyuan Su, 2019 In recent years China has experienced intense economic development Previously a rapidly urbanising industrial economy the country has become a post industrial economy with a service sector that accounts for almost half the nation's GDP This transformation has created many socio political changes but key among them is social mobilisation This book provides a full and systematic analysis of social mobilisation in China and how its use as part of state capacity has evolved

China's Leaders Cheng Li, 2001 Who will govern China after Jiang Zemin What path will its new leaders chart in the early years of the twenty first century Drawing upon a wealth of both quantitative and qualitative data on the so called fourth generation of leaders_ those who were young during the Cultural Revolution_ Cheng Li shows that this group is more diversified than previous generations in formative experiences political solidarity ideological conviction and occupational background The author explores the contradictions between these emerging leaders and their non elite peers who were barred from education during the Mao era and now often are unemployed and disenchanted The book concludes with the intriguing notion that this generation of leaders may have a better understanding of its peers' concerns and therefore may make the regime more accountable to its people thus contributing to rather than opposing democratic development

Aspirational Chinese in Competitive Social Repositionings Jia Gao, 2023-08-08 In the past four or so decades a significant amount of research efforts has been made to examine the rapid and constant social changes in China However most of the literature has focused on either macro or micro level issues and what has not been adequately analysed is how the majority of ordinary people has reacted to and influenced the changes This inadequacy has affected our understanding of Chinese society its dynamics and the changing trends Drawing upon a new perspective of competitive social repositioning and the evidence recorded in numerous recent publications and interview data this book seeks to re examine the ever changing but under researched societal dynamics driving social transformations in China from 1964 when the communist heir narrative was rebranded and utilised to 2000 when Jiang Zemin formulated the Three Represents theory to modify the ideological political thinking of China's ruling elites This analysis focuses on how a high proportion of aspirational citizens have kept repositioning themselves in China's changing distributions of social resources and social structure how their attitudes and behaviours have been shaped over time what characteristics of their choices are at different stages and how their preferences have resulted in the zig zag patterns of China's recent social change

Chinese Activism of a Different

Kind Gao Jia,2013-09-19 In Chinese Activism of a Different Kind Jia Gao examines the social behavior and patterns of actions of 45 000 or so Chinese students as they fought to obtain the right to stay permanently in Australia after the June 4 Tiananmen Square incident of 1989 In a time of relative Internet infancy their response to the shifting stances of the Australian government saw them build networks make use of media and develop a range of strategies In achieving success this diverse group of students became the largest intake of onshore asylum seekers in the history of Australian immigration Through their testimonies Jia Gao provides a fascinating addition to our knowledge of Chinese activism and to the history of Chinese migration

Translation, Adaptation and Transformation Laurence Raw,2012-01-12 In recent years adaptation studies has established itself as a discipline in its own right separate from translation studies The bulk of its activity to date has been restricted to literature and film departments focussing on questions of textual transfer and adaptation of text to film It is however much more interdisciplinary and is not simply a case of transferring content from one medium to another This collection furthers the research into exactly what the act of adaptation involves and whether it differs from other acts of textual rewriting In addition the cultural turn in translation studies has prompted many scholars to consider adaptation as a form of inter semiotic translation But what does this mean and how can we best theorize it What are the semiotic systems that underlie translation and adaptation Containing theoretical chapters and personal accounts of actual adaptations and translations this is an original contribution to translation and adaptation studies which will appeal to researchers and graduate students

Conditional Democracy Émilie Frenkiel,2015-03-01 Little is known about the political views of non dissident Chinese intellectuals For this book milie Frenkiel has been granted unprecedented access to the discussions of politically committed Chinese who have been part of the intellectual debate on post Tiananmen reform Her in depth research elicits lively views that reflect the yearnings and fears of the country s political elite and reveal the diversity of approaches to China s democratisation

New China's Long March from Servility to Freedom Wei-Bin Zhang,2007 This book is part of a broad study on Confucianism and its implications for the modernisation of East Asia The Opium War symbolises the beginning of foreign humiliations and the Cultural Revolution represents the apex of self oppression self intimidation and self humiliations China vainly strove under the guns of many countries until the end of World War II and since then has suffered from many civil wars Immediately after New China was established in 1949 the CCP closed the door to the outside democratic world thus creating self humiliations Since economic reform was launched in 1978 New China has been developed from the verge of nationwide self murder to the track for prosperity and freedom The long march from self destructiveness to social and economic progresses raises many challenging questions about human survival and processes Philosophical historical political and economic perspectives are discussed An open and enriching New China could dramatically affect the world in the not so distant future This book describes the history of New China as a dynamic process from the pole of central planning anti Americanism and anti Confucianism towards market economy Americanisation and
