Dependent Development in Korea, 1963-1979 Hyŏn-jin Im, 1986 Dependent Development in the World System Hyŏn-jin Im, 1983 Dependent development in the world-system Hyun-Chin Lim, 1982 The Political Economy of the New Asian Industrialism Frederic C. Deyo, 2018-08-06 The newly industrializing countries NICs of East Asia have undergone rapid economic expansion over the past twenty years Unlike NICs elsewhere in the Third World those in the Pacific basin South Korea Taiwan Singapore and Hong Kong have managed to achieve almost full employment a relatively egalitarian distribution of income and the virtual elimination of poverty In this collection of essays nine development specialists explore the Asian NICs exceptional ability to capitalize on the favorable economic environment of the 1960s and then to adapt flexibly to worsening conditions in the 1970s and 1980s Dependency Issues in Korean Development Kyŏng-dong Kim, 1987 The New Politics of Beijing-Hong Kong Relations Sonny Shiu-Hing Lo, 2024-05-24 In The New Politics of Beijing Hong Kong Relations Sonny Shiu Hing Lo looks at the diverging changes to the ideologies from both Beijing and Hong Kong and the ideological conflicts as taken in the form of factional political struggles between 2012 and the present This book examines the paternalistic authoritarianism that can be seen in Beijing's policy toward Hong Kong since the promulgation of the national security law in late June 2020 Lo analyzes the ideological shift from liberal nationalism to conservative nationalism in mainland China which has taken place since late 2012 The increasingly radical localism in Hong Kong after 2014 transformed Beijing Hong Kong relations into a conflict ridden situation characterized by factional struggles While the imposition of the national security law into Hong Kong since late June 2020 has stabilized the city politically Beijing's policy toward Hong Kong is now guided by the principles of protecting its national security and maintaining economic pragmatism with implications for Beijing's relations with Taipei in the coming years Professor Lo's detailed and granular account of the clash between rising conservative nationalism in China and growing localist sentiment in Hong Kong offers an indispensable guide to the events and forces that culminate in the imposition of the national security law in 2020 This is an important contribution by a leading scholar and deserves a wide readership Victor Falkenheim University of Toronto Detailed intricate and informed an original and forceful analysis of the ideologies and factional politics that have shaped the recent interactions of Beijing and Hong Kong in the lead up to the 2020 national security law and beyond Paul Evans University of British Columbia Professor Lo strikes an excellently researched balanced but critical perspective sharing blame for the transformation of one country two systems on a naive radical localist populism in the HKSAR whose actions fed the fears of the Chinese government about threats to China's sovereignty over Hong Kong The resulting national security law replaced Hong Kong's pluralist system with a paternalistic one David Zweig The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology Crisis and Restructuring in East Asia S. Jeong, 2004-07-20 This book criticizes the widespread view that the 1997 Asian crisis was due to crony capitalism and puts the blame instead on misguided liberalization It analyzes the case of Korea's business conglomerates the chaebol with particular attention to the car industry to show how liberalization contributed to the crisis even at the level of the firm It shows how those firms that had developed innovative capabilities survived the crisis much better than those that had merely expanded into markets opened up by liberalization     Unequal Alliance Robin Broad,1988-04-06 In this seminal work U S development specialist Robin Broad chronicles the Philippine experiment with the structural adjustment model of development espoused by the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund     The Political Economy of Development in the Newly Industrializing Countries Jenn-Jaw Soong,1991     Developmental Transformation in South Korea Moon-Gi Suh,1998-09-24 South Korea s path toward a higher quality of life has been a dynamic process Suh shows shaped by historical contingencies some immutable logic of capitalist development and a dialectical relationship between the state and Korean civil society Debunking the illusion of democracy and myths of self regulating capitalism in South Korea Suh shows that a growth machine is not a panacea for the development of human beings and their quality of life If instead the raison d etre of quality of life depended upon a robust civil society operating under fair rules of the game by the state the developmental road would be more promising Suh seeks to test the hypothesis that the rising tide of economic growth will raise all boats in the Korean sea remapping its structural pressure points which have been submerged at high tide Given the high levels of economic growth generated by state intervention any demand of distributive justice necessitates egalitarian reforms As Suh shows the present South Korean situation goes straight to the heart of theoretical questions about the enduring structures of capitalism and its promise to improve average living standards and to link the redistribution of economic rewards to enhanced economic performance of the system as a whole South Korea s path to quality of life has been a dynamic process Suh shows determined by historical contingencies with some immutable logic of capitalist development and a dialectical relationship between the state and Korean civil society A study of particular interest to scholars researchers and policy makers concerned with political economy and social economic development and East Asian Studies     South Korean Foreign Policy, 1969-1988 Kyongsoo Lho,1988     Korea Observer ,2001     China, Korea, and Taiwan John Ravenhill,1995 This is a comparative study of the political economies of China Korea and Taiwan The two volume pair is part of a wider set of six volumes on the subject of East Asia     The Political Economy of Transitions to Peace Galia Press-Barnathan,2009 How is peace actually achieved reinforced and made permanent This is the question that this book tackles as the author examines the outcomes of a series of conflicts in the Middle East Asia and Europe from 1945 to the present The insights and lessons emerging from these cases and drawn out by Press Barnathan s analysis will help scholars and decision makers to better understand and more skillfully manage transitions to peace in present day conflicts     New Developments in Political Science Adrian Leftwich,1990 This book assesses the achievements and limitations of political science and outlines new areas of research and teaching up to the turn of the century It constitutes a useful state of the art survey and will be a valuable reference source for academics and
