Depleted Self:

The Depleted Self Donald Capps, 1993-01-01 Although narcissism may appear dormant in the 1990s clinical research on narcissism shows that behind a grandiose exhibitionistic side lies a shame ridden half of self loathing unworthiness and depression Capps says that traditional theologies of guilt are unable to address those gripped by shame and makes a case for a different pastoral approach in counseling and ministry

The Empathic God Frank Woggon, 2024 In The Empathic God Frank Woggon constructs a clinical theology of at onement Woggon calls for a caring participation in God s ongoing work of salvation through a praxis of spiritual care The book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care as well as clergy to critically reflect on where spiritual care practice and theology meet

Intersex, Theology, and the Bible Susannah Cornwall, 2016-01-26 Intersex bodies have been figured as troubling by doctors parents religious institutions and society at large In this book scholars draw on constructive and pastoral theologies biblical studies and sociology suggesting intersex s capacity to trouble is positive challenging unquestioned norms and assumptions in religion and beyond

Behavioural Economics and Experiments Ananish Chaudhuri, 2021-05-13 Behavioural Economics and Experiments addresses key topics within behavioural economics exploring vital questions around decision making and human nature Assuming no prior knowledge of economics the book features wide ranging examples from literature film sport neuroscience and beyond Ananish Chaudhuri explores the complex relationships between human behaviour society and decision making introducing readers to the latest work on heuristics framing and anchoring as well as ideas around fairness trust and social norms The book offers a fresh perspective on issues such as Decision making under uncertainty Firms pricing decisions Employment contracts Coordination failures in organizations Preventing bubbles in financial markets This is an ideal introduction for students of behavioural economics experimental economics and economic decision making on economics public policy psychology and business related programmes and will also be accessible to policymakers and curious laymen

The Science of Religion, Spirituality, and Existentialism Kenneth E. Vail III, Clay Routledge, 2020-04-04 The Science of Religion Spirituality and Existentialism presents in depth analysis of the core issues in existential psychology their connections to religion and spirituality e g religious concepts beliefs identities and practices and their diverse outcomes e g psychological social cultural and health Leading scholars from around the world cover research exploring how fundamental existential issues are both cause and consequence of religion and spirituality informed by research data spanning multiple levels of analysis such as evolution cognition and neuroscience emotion and motivation personality and individual differences social and cultural forces physical and mental health among many others The Science of Religion Spirituality and Existentialism explores known contours and emerging frontiers addressing the big question of why religious belief remains such a central feature of the human experience Discusses both abstract concepts of mortality and concrete near death experiences Covers the struggles and triumphs associated with freedom self regulation and authenticity Examines the roles of social exclusion experiential isolation attachment and the construction of social identity Considers the problems of uncertainty the effort to discern truth and reality and the challenge to find meaning in life Discusses how the mind developed to handle existential topics how the brain and mind implement the relevant processes and the many variations and individual differences that alter those processes Delves into the psychological functions of religion and science the influence on pro and antisocial behavior politics and public policy and looks at the role of spiritual concerns in understanding the human body and maintaining physical health Using Substances to Enhance Performance: A Psychology of Neuroenhancement Ralf Brand,2017-01-18

Neuroenhancement NE is a behavior conceptualized as the use of a potentially psychoactive substance to enhance ones already proficient cognitive capacities Depending on the specific definitions used prevalence estimates vary greatly between very low 0.3% for illicit substances to astonishingly high 89% for freely available lifestyle substances These variations indicate that further research and more conceptual and theoretical clarification of the NE construct is dearly needed The contributions of this research topic aim to do just that Specific questions addressed are How prevalent is NE behavior How can NE research profit from the already more evolved field of social science research on doping in sports How is NE perceived by the public What psychological processes and variables play a role in the decision to neuroenhance A wide array of methodological approaches is used to investigate these questions The topics contributions range from theoretical to experimental accounts on NE and they utilize a diverse set of methods ranging from qualitative to neuroscientific approaches The research presented here represents a first step towards what we have labeled a psychological approach to NE By addressing the questions above this research topic hopefully advances our understanding of NE behavior As with every new field of research new answers always prompt new questions In light of what we know now about NE we hope that the findings presented here will be pursued by other researchers in the future Clearly the endeavor to understand NE behavior has only just begun Food cravings Adrian Meule, Boris C. Rodríguez-Martín,2015-05-26 Food craving refers to an intense desire or urge to consume a specific food In Western or Westernized societies these craved foods usually have high palatability and are energy dense that is they have high sugar and or fat content Accordingly the most often craved food is chocolate Food craving is a multidimensional experience as it includes cognitive e.g. thinking about food emotional e.g. desire to eat or changes in mood behavioral e.g. seeking and consuming food and physiological e.g. salivation aspects Experiences of food craving are common that is they do not reflect abnormal eating behavior per se However very intense and frequent food craving experiences are associated with obesity and eating disorders such as bulimia nervosa and binge eating disorder The aim of this research topic was to gather new contributions to a variety of aspects of food craving which include its assessment cognitive and emotional triggers moderators and correlates of food craving and the relevance of food cravings in clinical issues among others Self Discovery Doris Pullen,1972 The Way to the Eternal Clinton W. Collier,1923

Confronting Politics Through the Negotiation of Identity in Contemporary Visual Art Stephanie Jane Beene,2007

Psychoanalytic Clinical Practice Richard D. Chessick, 2000 In this book the author selects and presents eighteen of his most salient clinical papers His presentation of detailed treatment cases is useful to the therapist and reveals an original orientation based on his five channel theory of psychoanalytic listening that involves listening and responding to the patient from different stances or frameworks He also reviews the various factors that he feels are operative in bringing about changes in psychoanalytic treatment Clinical material from the treatment of borderline patient eating disorders psychosomatic disorders schizophrenic disorders obsessive compulsive disorders and characterological and personality disorders is included This study is personal and reveals much about the inner thoughts of the psychoanalyst as he struggles to deal with difficult problems including impasses and failures in the treatment Adventure, 1918 Photorefractive Fiber and Crystal Devices, 2002 The American Journal of Psychology Granville Stanley Hall, Edward Bradford Titchener, Karl M. Dallenbach, Madison Bentley, Edwin Garrigues Boring, Margaret Floy Washburn, 1924 Losing Our Virtue David F. Wells, 1998 Continuing his series begun with No Place for Truth and God in the Wasteland David Wells here offers a bold new critique focused this time on the fractured moral vision of society at large and its reflection in today's evangelical church Living Alone Herbert Anderson, Freda A. Gardner, 1998 Can one live alone and be whole The authors of this book are clear that the answer is yes It is how we live our lives and not whether we live them with another person that matters most to God Here is a practical and wise guide for those alone in life Positive Psychology: Discovering human strengths Shane J. Lopez, 2008 Most of psychology focuses on negatives and illnesses Positive psychology is an attempt to redress the balance and focus on the positive aspects of life human strengths and virtues that are found in the happiest people The Jewish Social Service Quarterly, 1924 Beginning with 1931 the Sept issue consists of the Proceedings of the conference Handbook of Personology and Psychopathology Stephen Strack, 2005-01-19 Personology is the study of human character in all of its complexities covering the range of normal and pathological individuals from evolutionary development classification diagnosis and measurement to intervention at the individual family and societal levels This volume sure to become a classic in the field provides a state of the art overview of the field of personology including personality theory taxonomy and assessment diagnosis and treatment of personality disorders and the interface between normal and abnormal personlity The breadth and depth of this monumental work and the caliber of its contributors is unsurpassed Many of the leading clinicians and researchers in psychology are contributors including Otto Kernberg John Livesley Robert Bornstein Jeffrey Magnavita Drew Westen Irving Weiner and Lorna Benjamin Represents the culmination of a professional career and a capstone to our publishing program in the area of personality and psychopathology Narcissism and Conversational Interaction Michael Frederic Hoexter, 1998
