Der Creglinger Altar des Tilman Riemenschneider Tilman Riemenschneider, Karl Scheffler, 1949 Carved Splendor Rainer Kahsnitz, 2006 The color photographs specially commissioned for this project are an essential feature of the book Each altarpiece is illustrated in its entirety with its wings both opened and closed and in close up views of its most important carvings and paintings details that are not available to the average visitor to these sites BOOK JACKET Der Creglinger Altar des Tilman Riemenschneider Tilman Riemenschneider, Georg Schaffert, Karl Scheffler, 1975 Der Creglinger Altar des Tilman Riemenschneider Tilman Riemenschneider, Karl Scheffler, 1969 The Matter of Mimesis, 2023-03-13 Mimesis or imitation comes in many forms from animal and plant mimicry to artistic copies from life This book offers eighteen essays addressing mimesis from diverse perspectives From the recreation of galaxies to Iron Age torcs from counterfeit dragons to modern waxworks each chapter explores facets of material mimesis from prehistory to the present day The Matter of Mimesis invites readers to compare practices of imitating faking and synthesising materials and objects in nature art and science raising questions about skills techniques and politics of making that transcend historical and disciplinary boundaries and inform both our past and future worlds Riemenschneider in Rothenburg Katherine M. Boivin, 2021-05-21 The concept of the medieval city is fixed in the modern imagination conjuring visions of fortified walls towering churches and winding streets In Riemenschneider in Rothenburg Katherine M Boivin investigates how medieval urban planning and artistic programming worked together to form dynamic environments demonstrating the agency of objects styles and spaces in mapping the late medieval city Using altarpieces by the famed medieval artist Tilman Riemenschneider as touchstones for her argument Boivin explores how artwork in Germany's preeminent medieval city Rothenburg ob der Tauber deliberately propagated civic ideals She argues that the numerous artistic pieces commissioned by the city's elected council over the course of two centuries built upon one another creating a cohesive structural network that attracted religious pilgrims and furthered the theological ideals of the parish church By contextualizing some of Rothenburg's most significant architectural and artistic works such as St James's Church and Riemenschneider's Altarpiece of the Holy Blood Boivin shows how the city government employed these works to establish a local aesthetic that awed visitors raising Rothenburg's profile and putting it on the pilgrimage map of Europe Carefully documented and convincingly argued this book sheds important new light on the history of one of Germany's major tourist destinations It will be of considerable interest to medieval art historians and scholars working in the fields of cultural and urban history The Trees of the Cross Gregory C. Bryda, 2023-06-13 A revelatory exploration of wood's many material ecological and symbolic meanings in the religious art of medieval Germany A rewarding study that is full of new insights Jeremy Warren Art Newspaper In late medieval Germany wood was a material laden with significance It was an important part of the local environment and economy as well as an object of religious devotion in and of itself Gregory C Bryda examines the multiple meanings of wood and greenery within religious art as a material as a feature of agrarian life and as a symbol of the cross whose wood has resonances with other iconographies in the liturgy Bryda discusses how influential artists such as Matthias Gr newald known for the Isenheim Altarpiece and the renowned sculptor Tilman Riemenschneider exploited wood s multivalent nature to connect spiritual themes to the lived environment outside church walls Exploring the complex visual and material culture of the period this lavishly illustrated volume features works ranging from monumental altarpieces to portable pictures and offers a fresh understanding of how wood in art functioned to unlock the mysteries of faith and the natural world in both liturgy and everyday life
