Books,2001-01-02 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Adolf Hitler Life Story Cristian Butnariu,Adolf Hitler,2014-09-01 Adolf Hitler was born on 20 April 1889 in the small Austrian town of Braunau to Alois Hitler who later became a senior customs official and his wife Klara who was from a poor peasant family At primary school Hitler showed great intellectual potential and was extremely popular with fellow pupils as well as being admired for his leadership qualities However competition at secondary school was tougher and Hitler stopped trying as a result He also lost his popularity among his fellow students and instead preferred to re enact battles from the Boer war with younger children At the age of 15 he failed his exams and was told to repeat the year but he left without a formal education instead At the age of 18 he moved to Vienna with money inherited after his father s death in 1903 in order to pursue a career in art as this was his best subject at school However his applications for both the Vienna Academy of Art and the School of Architecture were rejected It was supposedly at this time that Hitler first became interested in politics and how the masses could be made to respond to certain themes He was particularly impressed with the anti Semitic nationalist Christian Socialist party During the First World War he volunteered to fight for the German Army and gained the rank of corporal earning accolades as a dispatch runner He won several awards for bravery including the Iron Cross First Class In October 1918 he was blinded in a mustard gas attack Germany surrendered while Hitler was in hospital and he went into a state of great depression spending lots of time in tears After the war ended Hitler s future seemed uncertain In 1919 Hitler attended his first meeting of the German Workers party an anti Semitic nationalist group as a spy for the German Army However he found he agreed with Anton Drexler s German nationalism and anti Semitism He disagreed with how they were organised leading him to make a passionate speech Hitler quickly cemented his reputation as an engaging orator through his passion about the injustices faced by Germany as a result of the Treaty of Versailles It soon became clear that people were joining the party just to see Hitler make his speeches which would leave the audience in a state of near hysteria and willing to do whatever he suggested He quickly rose through the ranks and by 1921 was the leader of the re named National Socialist German Workers Party Nazi With terrible economic conditions and rapid inflation support for Hitler s party grew By 1923 the Nazi s had 56 000 members and many more supporters On 8 and 9 November 1923 Hitler staged the Nazi Beer Hall Putsch He hoped to force the Bavarian government to work with the Nazis and march together on Berlin The attempt failed but although Hitler was tried for treason the judge gave him a very light sentence While in prison Hitler wrote Mein Kampf which formulated his political ideas He reorganised his party on his release from jail but it was not until the world depression hit Germany that the Nazis were able to attract significant followers By 1930 the Nazis were polling around 6 5 million votes In the presidential elections of 1932 Hitler came second On 30 January 1933 President Hindenburg was forced to appoint Hitler as Chancellor given his popular support In office Hitler set about consolidating his power appointing Nazis to government and gaining control of emergency powers He eliminated all opposition in the name of emergency control and with the death of Hindenburg in 1934 Hitler s power was secured

The Hitler of History John Lukacs,2011-04-06 In this brilliant strikingly original book historian John Lukacs delves to the core of Adolf Hitler s life and mind by examining him through the lenses of his surprisingly diverse biographers Since 1945 there have been more than one hundred biographies of Hitler and countless other books on him and the Third Reich What happens when so many people reinterpret the life of a single individual Dangerously the cumulative portrait that begins to emerge can suggest the face of a mythic antihero whose crimes and errors blur behind an aura of power and conquest By reversing the process by making Hitler s biographers rather than Hitler himself the subject of inquiry Lukacs reveals the contradictions that take us back to the true Hitler of history Like an attorney Lukacs puts the biographies on trial He gives a masterly account of all the major works and of the personalities methods and careers of the biographers one cannot separate the historian from his history particularly in this arena he looks at what is still not known and probably never will be about Hitler he considers various crucial aspects of the real Hitler and he shows how different biographers have either advanced our understanding or gone off track By singling out those who have been involved in or co opted into an implicit rehabilitation of Hitler Lukacs draws powerful conclusions about Hitler s essential differences from other monsters of history such as Napoleon Mussolini and Stalin and equally important about Hitler s place in the history of this century and of the world     The New York Times Book Review ,1980 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback     Prevent World War III. ,1950
