Der Kompass Europas:

The Role of Social Partners in Managing Europe's Great Recession Bernhard Ebbinghaus, J. Timo

Weishaupt, 2021-07-29 This comprehensive study of the Great Recession and its consequences provides comparative analyses of the extent to which social concertation between government unions and employers varied over time and across European countries This edited volume a collaboration of international country experts includes eight in depth country case studies and analysis of European level social dialogue Further comparisons explore whether social concertation followed economic necessity was dependent on political factors or rather resulted from labour's power resources The importance of social partners involvement is again evident during the Covid 19 pandemic Examining contemporary crises the book will be of considerable interest to scholars and students of public and social policies comparative political economy and industrial relations and more broadly to those following European and EU politics

The Enigma of the Origin of Portolan Charts

Roel Nicolai, 2016-05-30 The sudden appearance of portolan charts realistic nautical charts of the Mediterranean and Black Sea at the end of the thirteenth century is one of the most significant occurrences in the history of cartography Using geodetic and statistical analysis techniques these charts are shown to be mosaics of partial charts that are considerably more accurate than has been assumed Their accuracy exceeds medieval mapping capabilities These sub charts show a remarkably good agreement with the Mercator map projection It is demonstrated that this map projection can only have been an intentional feature of the charts construction Through geodetic analysis the author eliminates the possibility that the charts are original products of a medieval Mediterranean nautical culture which until now they have been widely believed to be
