Begriff Trag die durchaus w rtlich gemeint Mann described Death in Venice as the tragedy of degradation and in so doing he meant this quite literally his work is full of classical allusions and dark motifs enriching the compelling narrative of the faltering writer von Aschenbach and his quiet love for Tadzio The book is short but immensely powerful and Venice especially is depicted as nowhere else in German literature as a city of passion and intrigue but also of sickness and decay This student s edition of Death in Venice contains the full 1912 text complete with background notes and a biography of the author as well as spacious margins for annotation Visit www.cbypublishing.co.uk to view our full range of products

Death in Venice Thomas Mann, 1925     Der Tod in Venedig Thomas Mann, 1913     Twentieth-century Reworkings of German Literature Gundula Sharman, 2002 A study of six modern reworkings of classic works of German literature A literary reworking is a fictional work based on an earlier usually canonical literary work Gundula M Sharman considers six twentieth century examples of this phenomenon in German literature including Peter Schneider s Lenz as a reworking of Georg Bchner s novella of the same title Ulrich Plenzdorf s Die neuen Leiden des jungen W as a reworking of Goethe s Werther Wolfgang Koeppen s Der Tod in Rom based on Thomas Mann s Der Tod in Venedig and three other pairs of reworkings original works from the genres of drama the novella and the novel The indebtedness of such reworkings to the original works is openly acknowledged often in the title and this invites the reader to draw comparisons and to note contrasts between reworking and original The twentieth century author s interpretation and the reader s reception of the older work merge to form a subtext of the reworking giving rise to a third narrative in the reader s imagination The better the reader knows the literary model the more multi faceted the reworking appears The purpose of each reworking is unique One may demonstrate how much the world has changed since the publication of the original while another argues that society has not changed at all One may be conceived as an anti work to the original while another serves to endorse its message Common to all reworkings however is a gain in historical depth and in each case themes and issues arise from the relationship of reworking to original that are not immediately apparent when the reworking is considered on its own Gundula M Sharman teaches in the German Department at the University of Aberdeen Scotland
