Abstract

An Analysis of Jacques Derrida's Structure, Sign, and Play in the Discourse of the Human Sciences Tim Smith-Laing, 2018-05-20. Jacques Derrida's Structure of Sign and Play is one of the most controversial and influential philosophical texts of the 20th century. Delivered at a conference on structuralism at Johns Hopkins, the lecture took aim at the critical and philosophical fashions of the time and radically proposing a world in which meaning cannot be pinned down or traced to an origin but instead is continuously shifting, fleeting and open to play. Hailed by many as a watershed in philosophy and literary theory, Derrida's lecture has shaped both disciplines. At once dense, brilliant and humorous, it is a crucial read for anyone interested in questioning our natural assumptions about meaning in the world.

The Politics and Pedagogy of Mourning Timothy Secret, 2015-02-26 Jacques Derrida famously stated in Specters of Marx that a justice worthy of the name must call us to render justice not only to the living but also to the dead In The Politics and Pedagogy of Mourning Timothy Secret argues that offering a persuasive account of such a duty requires establishing a discussion among the 20th century's three key thinkers on death Heidegger Levinas and Freud Despite arguing that none of these three figures discourses offers us a complete account of our duty to the dead and that it remains impossible to unify them into a single consistent and correct approach Secret nevertheless offers an account of how Derrida managed to produce an always singular articulation of these discourses in each of the acts of eulogy he offered for his philosophical contemporaries This is one of the first monographs to pay particular attention to the key role any contemporary account of the ethics of eulogy must grant to the revolutionary theoretical work on the materiality of crypts and phantoms offered by the psychoanalysts Nicolas Abraham and Maria Torok Their work is shown to supplement major limitations in traditional philosophical accounts of the ethical relation The account of eulogy as a privileged space where different discourses act on each other under the pressure of responding responsibly to an always singular loss proves itself essential reading not only for those interested in understanding Derrida's overtly political works but also offers an account of a performative training in negotiating aporias that arise in political society the result of which is a pedagogy in the art of civility whose relevance today is more timely than ever

but neglected concept in aesthetics and a model for ground breaking modern and postmodern experiments that have intended to blur the boundary between art and life Moving freely between disciplines Katarzyna Zimna links the theory and history of 20th and 21st century art with ideas developed within play game and leisure studies and the philosophical theories of Kant Gadamer and Derrida to critically engage with current discussion on the role of the artist viewers curators and their spaces of encounter She combines a consideration of the philosophical implications of play with the examination of how it is actually used in modern and postmodern art looking at Dada Surrealism Fluxus and Relational Aesthetics Focusing mainly on process based art this bold book proposes a fresh approach reaching beyond classical cultural theories of play The Derrida Wordbook Maria-Daniella Dick, Julian Wolfreys, 2013 Jacques Derrida 1930 2004 was undoubtedly one of the most influential thinkers of the 20th century He informed debate across many varied subjects and questions from literature and philosophy to politics ethics religion aesthetics and culture This book offers scholars students and researchers an extensive glossary providing the reader with definitions of a wide range of terms employed by or associated with Derrida
