The Business Year: Portugal 2023 , Portugal has turned things around superbly since the 2010s and is today leveraging EU funds and its strong appeal to foreign investors especially in real estate to build a more sustainable economy The inflow of foreign capital shaped the Portuguese economy over 2023 The main benefactors were hospitality real estate and education The US ranked as the number one country by investment volume for the first time It is in this context that The Business Year began its research for this 150 page publication meeting dozens of the country s top business leaders across every major sector of the economy

Sector Insights: Real Estate in Portugal , What is the state of real estate in Portugal A decade ago the country put in place attractive fiscal advantages like the Golden Visa and non habitual residency agreements to attract foreign cash This enhanced an investment proposal that was already tricky to match within Europe A warm climate European capital with an oceanfront offers an unbeatable lifestyle package Other incentives also drove the Portugal brand as a market and in conjunction as a tourist destination But in 2023 government rhetoric began to stir with programs like Ant nio Costa s Mais Habita o a program to increase access to affordable homes in the wake of soaring real estate prices The program has met with fierce criticism however as has the canceling of the Golden Visa program It is against this backdrop that research for this 50 page Sector Insights report began It features a range of interviews news articles and analysis from across the real estate and construction sector
