Surveillance Education Nolan Higdon, Allison Butler, 2024-08-02 Surveillance Education explores the pervasive use of digital surveillance technologies in schools and assesses its pernicious effects on students Recognizing that the use of digital technologies will persist the authors instead offer practical ways to ameliorate their impact In our era of surveillance capitalism digital media technologies are ever more intertwined into the educational process Schools are presented with digital technologies as tools of convenience for gathering and grading student work as tools of support to foster a more equitable learning environment and as tools of safety for predicting or preventing violence or monitoring mental emotional and physical health Despite a dearth of evidence to confirm their effectiveness digital data collection and tracking is often presented as a way to improve educational outcomes and safety This book challenges these fallacious assumptions and argues that the use of digital media technologies has caused great harm to students by subjecting them to oppressive levels of surveillance impinging upon their right to privacy and harvesting their personal data on behalf of Big Tech In doing so the authors draw upon interviews from K 12 and higher education students teachers and staff civil rights and technology lawyers and educational technological programmers The authors also provide practical guidance for teachers administrators students and their families seeking to identify and combat surveillance in education This urgent eye opening book will be of interest to students and educators with interests in critical media literacy and pedagogy and the sociology of technology and education

Management, Conflict Resolution and Strategy Magdalena Kraczla, Anna Wziątek-Staśko, 2024-08-02 Managers are key people in building the success of any organization Business results depend on their efficiency in the implementation of the power entrusted to them This efficiency on the other hand largely depends on psychosocial competences and personality predispositions One of the main factors affecting destructively on managers is stress destroying the level of their motivation to work the level of commitment and ultimately resulting in premature professional burnout and a significant reduction in the level of efficiency Ultimately instead of efficient and motivated specialists companies are struggling with employees suffering from depression Exploration of the issue of identifying the sources of stress draws attention to conflict as one of the main research categories that are closely related to the category of stress It is worth emphasizing that this relationship is two way conflict determines the level of stress stress may determine the scale of conflict situations This recommended monograph provides the latest knowledge on what contemporary managers use conflict resolution styles and what strategies they choose to deal with in stressful situations A particular advantage of the study is the presentation of the links between both research categories which are so paramount nowadays The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Any third party material in this book is not included in the OA Creative Commons license unless indicated otherwise in a credit line to the material Please direct any permissions enquiries to the original rightsholder
