Crisis In Marriage Justices:

Tourism, Global Crises and Justice Raymond Rastegar, Freya Higgins-Desbiolles, Lisa Ruhanen, 2024-09-27 This book gathers theoretical and empirical studies exploring the link between global crises sustainable tourism and the justice challenges being faced by vulnerable groups individuals and society While any crisis may exacerbate existing inequalities the crises of the 21st century are compounding and complicating the ways the impacts unfold and engulf individuals communities and indeed the global community Recent crises revealed how dependent our economies and societies are on the tourism and hospitality industries While studies of crises in tourism have proliferated with concerns for risk management recovery and resilience COVID 19 has exposed the need to think more profoundly on this topic In such circumstances therefore tourism actors must respond to the sustainability and justice challenges resulting from current and future crises by rethinking redefining and reorienting tourism The chapters in this edited volume present a discussion of pertinent themes that consider just transformations issues of climate justice diverse worldviews and knowledges possibilities for solidarity through tourism and concerns with power and decolonisation This book will be of great interest to upper level students researchers and academic of tourism development studies and sustainability as well as professionals in the field of tourism management The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Sustainable Tourism Law and Justice in a Multistate

World: Essays in Honor of Arthur T. von Mehren James Nafziger, Symeon Symeonides, 2022-06-08 For over half a century Arthur T von Mehren has been a luminary in the fields of comparative law private international law and legal education Here fifty eight of the world s leading scholars and jurists honor his work and outstanding contributions to the advance of knowledge and reform The volume is divided into four illuminating sections Part I Jurisdiction Judgment Part II Choice of Law Part III International Arbitration Part IV Comparative European Law Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

The Arts of Transitional Justice Peter D. Rush, Olivera Simić, 2013-09-25 The Art of Transitional Justice examines the relationship between transitional justice and the practices of art associated with it Art which includes theater literature photography and film has been integral to the understanding of the issues faced in situations of transitional justice as well as other issues arising out of conflict and mass atrocity The chapters in this volume take up this understanding and its demands of transitional justice in situations in several countries Afghanistan Serbia Srebrenica Rwanda Northern Ireland Cambodia as well as the experiences of resulting diasporic communities In doing so it brings to bear the insights from scholars civil society groups and art practitioners as well as interdisciplinary collaborations Migration, Gender and Social Justice Thanh-Dam Truong, Des Gasper, Jeff Handmaker, Sylvia I. Bergh, 2013-09-06 This book is the product of a collaborative effort involving partners from Africa Asia Europe and Latin America who were funded by the International Development Research Centre Programme on Women and Migration 2006 2011 The International Institute of Social Studies at Erasmus University Rotterdam spearheaded a project intended to distill and refine the research findings connecting them to broader literatures and interdisciplinary themes The book examines commonalities and differences in the operation of various structures of power gender class race ethnicity generation and their interactions within the institutional domains of intra national and especially inter national migration that produce context specific forms of social injustice Additional contributions have been included so as to cover issues of legal liminality and how the social construction of not only femininity but also masculinity affects all migrants and all women The resulting set of 19 detailed interconnected case studies makes a valuable contribution to reorienting our perceptions and values in the discussions and decision making concerning migration and to raising awareness of key issues in migrants rights All chapters were anonymously peer reviewed This book resulted from a series of projects funded by the International Development Research Centre IDRC Canada

Justice and Welfare in Divorce Mervyn Murch,1980 Equity and Justice in Social Behavior Jerald

Greenberg,Ronald L. Cohen,2014-05-10 Equity and Justice in Social Behavior provides a critical assessment of the social psychological knowledge relevant to justice This book illustrates how the broad concept of justice pervades the core literature of social psychology Organized into 12 chapters this book begins with an overview of the primary justice theories and identifies some of the focal issues with which they are concerned This text then provides the necessary theoretical background for the study Other chapters consider the various individual difference variables known to affect adherence to social justice norms This book explains as well how the perceived causes of justice affect attempts to seek redress and how actors and observers diverge in their perspectives about justice The final chapter deals with the normative and instrumental interpretations that have been offered to explain justice behavior This book is a valuable resource for social psychologists social scientists philosophers political actors theorists and graduate students

SOCIAL WORK IN JUVENILE AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEMS (4th Ed.) David W. Springer,Albert R. Roberts,2017-05-16 Social Work in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Systems sets the standard of care for mental health treatment and the delivery of social services to crime victims juvenile and adult offenders and their families The chapters all authored by experts in the field and all committed to the mission of social justice are written with the clear understanding that we cannot study criminal justice in a vacuum Therefore a major focus of the book is on the renewed growing sense of the profession s obligation to social justice Each chapter interconnects with the various components of juvenile and criminal justice Another prominent aspect of the book is that it is strength based It views those involved in the criminal and juvenile justice systems as individuals rather than inmates or criminals each with unique positive talents and abilities The book is divided into four sections The first section discusses forensic social work including crime and delinquency theories trends and ethical issues The second section prepares social workers for practice in correctional institutions and explores crisis intervention with victims of violence reentry of adult offenders in society and aging in prison The third section covers assessment and intervention in child sexual abuse mental health and substance abuse interpersonal violence and prevention child welfare and juvenile justice The final section presents an overview on social work in the twenty first century which includes restorative justice and the justice system new ways of delivering justice domestic violence neighborhood revitalization race and ethnicity and social work practice with LGBTQ offenders This book will be the best single source on social work in criminal justice settings and will prove to be an invaluable resource for the many professionals who have responsibility for formulating and carrying out the mandates of the criminal justice system

Crisis Intervention in Criminal Justice/social Service James Earnest Hendricks, Bryan Byers, 2002 This collection of works is intended for pre service and in service criminal justice and social service crisis interveners this book provides theoretical analytical and practical knowledge for those who first respond to crisis in a professional capacity Face to face interaction with the client victim is part of the comprehensive approach advocated by this book which requires interveners to assess the nature of a crisis and the condition of the victim in order to determine the appropriate course of action Each chapter offers a theoretical overview of a particular facet of intervention as well as models and methods for applying crisis theory to crisis situations faced by interveners Although crisis situations are composed of similar elements each crisis is unique within the personal domain due to individual diversity Chapters are devoted to crisis intervention for each of the following crises domestic violence spouse abuse child abuse and neglect elder abuse and neglect rape and sexual assault the death of a loved one and suicide

Gender, Violence, and Justice Pamela Cooper-White, 2019-03-20 Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence Topics include intimate partner violence sexual abuse and trauma and clergy sexual misconduct controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and as well positive frameworks for fostering well being in families church and society Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology care and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice
