Crisis In Anthropology A View From Spring Hill 1980:

Observers Observed George W. Stocking, 1984-01-17 History of Anthropology is a new series of annual volumes each of which will treat an important theme in the history of anthropological inquiry For this initial volume the editors have chosen to focus on the modern cultural anthropology intensive fieldwork by participant observation Observers Observed includes essays by a distinguished group of historians and anthropologists covering major episodes in the history of ethnographic fieldwork in the American British and French traditions since 1880 As the first work to investigate the development of modern fieldwork in a serious historical way this collection will be of great interest and value to anthropologist historians of science and the social sciences and the general readers interested in the way in which modern anthropologists have perceived and described the cultures of others Included in this volume are the contributions of Homer G Barnett University of Oregon James Clifford University of California Santa Cruz Douglas Cole Simon Frazer University Richard Handler Lake Forest College Curtis Hinsley Colgate University Joan Larcom Mount Holyoke College Paul Rabinow University of California Berkeley and the editor

Colonial Situations George W. Stocking, 1991-10-01 As European colonies in Asia and Africa became independent nations as the United States engaged in war in Southeast Asia and in covert operations in South America anthropologists questioned their interactions with their subjects and worried about the political consequences of government supported research By 1970 some spoke of anthropology as the child of Western imperialism and as scientific colonialism Ironically as the link between anthropology and colonialism became more widely accepted within the discipline serious interest in examining the history of anthropology in colonial contexts diminished This volume is an effort to initiate a critical historical consideration of the varying colonial situations in which and out of which ethnographic knowledge essential to anthropology has been produced The essays comment on ethnographic work from the middle of the nineteenth century to nearly the end of the twentieth in regions from Oceania through southeast Asia the Andaman Islands and southern Africa to North and South America The colonial situations also cover a broad range from first contact through the establishment of colonial power from District Officer administrations through white settler regimes from internal colonialism to international mandates from early pacification to wars of colonial liberation from the expropriation of land to the defense of ecology The motivations and responses of the anthropologists discussed are equally varied the romantic resistance of Maclay and the complicity of Kubary in early colonialism Malinowski's salesmanship of academic anthropology Speck's advocacy of Indian land rights Schneider's grappling with the ambiguities of rapport and Turner's facilitation of Kaiapo cinematic activism Provides fresh insights for those who care about the history of science in general and that of anthropology in particular and a valuable reference for professionals and graduate students Choice Among the most distinguished publications in anthropology as well as in the history of social sciences George Marcus Anthropologica

Crisis in Anthropology Edward Adamson Hoebel, Richard L. Currier, Susan Kaiser, 1982 Handbook of Public Administration, Second Edition W. Bartley

Hildreth, Gerald J. Miller, Jack Rabin, 1997-09-19 This bestselling reference examines all major areas in public administration from the enlightening perspectives of history and the five great concepts or theories framing each topic including public budgeting financial management decision making public law and regulation and political economy The American Reference Books Annual calls this stimulating and thought provoking thorough and inclusive a valuable contribution and Canadian Public Administration said it is impressive an extremely useful reference tool the writing and analysis and the scope of the coverage make the volume a good investment for both government and university libraries Progress Leo Marx, Bruce Mazlish, 2025-10-01 Progress perhaps the fundamental secular belief of modern Western society has come under heavy fire recently because after three centuries advances in science and technology seem increasingly to bring problems in their wake alienation environmental degradation the threat of nuclear destruction The idea of progress is brought into question by postmodern critique attacking the notion of science as truth Yet no other meaningful organization of humankind's sense of time looms on the horizon This volume seeks to reassess the meaning and prospects of the idea of progress Looking toward the millennium the volume seeks to evaluate the idea's worth both in theory is it intellectually viable and defensible today and practice even if theoretically defensible is the idea undermined in actual life Approaching these questions from the perspectives of science anthropology economics religion political philosophy feminism medicine environmental studies and the Third World the contributors all distinguished scholars provide a unique and critical balance Ultimately the contributors find that progress is both a fact and an illusion it does occur in certain areas but it does not sweep all before it as its Enlightenment votaries thought it would This foundational idea permeates discourse in the natural and social sciences as well as the humanities and will engage historians students of the history of science and technology sociologists political scientists philosophers literary scholars and art critics as well as those interested in civilization in general Contributors include Jill Ker Conway Zhiyuan Cui Leon Eisenberg Robert Heilbroner Gerald Holton Leo Marx Bruce Mazlish Ali A Mazrui Alan Ryan John M Staudenmaier George W Stocking Jr and Richard White A discerning reconsideration of the idea of progress in a variety of carefully defined theoretical and empirical historical contexts David Hollinger University of California Berkeley Leo Marx is Professor of American Cultural History Emeritus Massachusetts Institute of Technology Bruce Mazlish is Professor of History Massachusetts Institute of Technology Malinowski, Rivers, Benedict and Others George W. Stocking, 1987-03-05 History of Anthropology is a series of annual volumes inaugurated in 1983 each of which treats a theme of major importance in both the history and current practice of anthropological inquiry Drawing its title from a poem of W H Auden's the present volume Malinowski Rivers Benedict and Others the fourth in the series focuses on the emergence of anthropological interest in culture and personality during the 1920s and 1930s It also explores the historical cultural literary and biological background of major figures associated with the movement including Bronislaw Malinowski Edward Sapir Abram Kardiner Ruth Benedict Margaret Mead and Gregory Bateson Born in the aftermath of World War I flowering in the years before and after World War II severely attacked in the 1950s and 1960s culture and personality was subsequently reborn as psychological anthropology Whether this foreshadows the emergence of a major anthropological subdiscipline equivalent to cultural social biological or linguistic anthropology from the current welter of adjectival anthropologies remain to be seen In the meantime the essays collected in the volume may encourage a rethinking of the historical roots of many issues of current concern Included in this volume are the contributions of Jeremy MacClancy William C Manson William Jackson Richard Handler Regna Darnell Virginia Yans McLaughlin James A Boon and the editor

Handbook of Public Administration W. Bartley Hildreth, Gerald Miller, Jack Rabin, Gerald J. Miller, 2018-01-19 Since the publication of the previous edition the best selling Handbook of Public Administration enters its third edition with substantially revised updated and expanded coverage of public administration history theory and practice Edited by preeminent authorities in the field this work is unparalleled in its thorough coverage and comprehensive references This handbook examines the major areas in public administration including public budgeting and financial management human resource management decision making public law and regulation and political economy Providing a strong platform for further research and advancement in the field this book is a necessity for anyone involved in public administration policy and management This edition includes entirely new chapters on information technology and conduct of inquiry In each area of public administration there are two bibliographic treatises written from different perspectives The first examines the developments in the field The second analyzes theories concepts or ideas in the field's literature

The Ethnographer's Magic and Other Essays in the History of Anthropology George Ward Stocking (Jr.), 1992 According to George Marcus of Rice University the essays represent the most informative and insightful writings on Malinowski and Boas and their legacies that are yet available Beyond their biographical material the essays here touch upon major themes in the history of anthropology its powerfully mythic aspect and persistent strain of romantic primitivism the contradictions of its relationship to the larger sociopolitical sphere its problematic integration of a variety of natural scientific and humanistic inquiries and the tension between its scientific aspirations and its subjectively acquired data To provide an overview against which to read the other essays Stocking has also included a sketch of the history of anthropology from the ancient Greeks to the present For this collection Stocking has written prefatory commentaries for each of the essays as well as two more extended contextualizing pieces
