Critical Care Canadian Nurses Speak For Change:

Critical Care André Picard, 2000      Public Policy and Canadian Nursing Michael J. Villeneuve, 2017-08-18 Public Policy and Canadian Nursing Lessons from the Field is the first text to explore the structure governance financing and outcomes of Canadian health systems through a nursing lens Drawing from his years of experience as a nursing leader in Canada Michael J Villeneuve looks to the impending system challenges for which policy interventions by nurses would make a valuable difference to Canadians Intended to bolster the policy leadership competency of nurses this volume is divided into three modules that guide nurses from the basics of Canadian governance to the history and evolution of health care in Canada and the tools and strategies needed to tackle public policy work The author introduces readers to essential topics in health policy including system financing and costs Canadian population health status and performance outcomes Citing examples of nursing action and interventions throughout this groundbreaking text offers practical tools and strategies to support Canadian nurses taking on policy development and highlights the vital role of the nursing profession in health system transformation Reader friendly and highly accessible it features brief profiles of influential public policy leaders in nursing and other disciplines discussion questions appropriate for undergraduate and graduate nursing students and additional policy resources      Public Health in the Age of Anxiety Centre for Studies in Religion & Society, 2017-06-30 Controversies and scepticism surrounding vaccinations though not new have increasingly come to the fore as more individuals decide not to inoculate themselves or their children for cultural religious or other reasons Their personal decisions put the rights of the individual on a collision course with public and community safety Public Health in the Age of Anxiety enhances both the public and scholarly understanding of the motivations behind vaccine hesitancy in Canada The volume brings into conversation people working within such fields as philosophy medicine epidemiology history nursing anthropology public policy and religious studies The contributors critically analyse issues surrounding vaccine safety the arguments against vaccines the scale of anti vaccination sentiment public dissemination of medical research and the effect of private beliefs on individual decision making and public health These essays model and encourage the type of productive engagement that is necessary to clarify the value of vaccines and reduce the tension between pro and anti vaccination groups      J. Wendell Macleod Louis Horlick, 2009-07-15 Macleod was an ardent believer in the social principles of health care His early awareness of the economic chasm that separated rich from poor provided the focal point of his career as first dean of medicine at the University of Saskatchewan he taught that understanding the social economic and political world in which people lived was critical to good medical education and practice and made it the core of the curriculum      Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M.
