Critical Humanisms Humanist Anti Humanist Debates:

Critical Humanisms Martin Halliwell, Andy Mousley, 2003 This distinctive reappraisal of humanism argues that humanist thought is a diverse tradition which cannot be reduced to current conceptions of it By considering humanism via the categories of Romantic Existential Dialogic Civic Spiritual Pagan Pragmatic and Technological Humanisms Halliwell and Mousley propose that the critical edge of humanist thought can be rescued from its popular view as intellectually redundant They also argue that because these humanisms contain within them anti humanist perspectives it is possible to counter the charge that humanism is based upon an unquestioned image of human nature The book focuses on the thought of twenty four mainly European and North American thinkers ranging historically from the Renaissance to postmodernism It discusses foundational writers some of whom have been claimed as anti humanists such as Marx Nietzsche Freud Dewey and Sartre as well as the contemporary thinkers Habermas Cixous Rorty Hall and Haraway to construct a series of provocative dialogues which suggest the ongoing relevance of humanism to issues of ethics art science selfhood gender citizenship and religion Given the range and originality of the book's approach Critical Humanisms will be an invaluable resource for students and researchers in the Humanities particularly English American studies cultural studies modern languages philosophy and sociology

Critical Humanist Perspectives Adrian Pablé, 2017-05-18 The present book is a collection of scholarly reflections on the theme of humanism from an integrational linguistic perspective It studies humanist thought in relation to the philosophy of language and communication underpinning it and considers the question whether being a humanist binds one to a particular view of language The contributions to this volume explore whether integrational linguistics being informed by a non mainstream semiology and adopting a lay linguistic perspective can provide better answers to contentious ontological and epistemological questions concerning the humanist project questions having to do with the self reason authenticity creativity free agency knowledge and human communication The humanist perspectives adopted by the contributors to this volume are critical insofar as they start from semiological assumptions that challenge received notions within mainstream linguistics such as the belief that languages are fixed codes of some kind that communication serves the purpose of thought transfer and that languages are prerequisites for communication

The Critical Humanism of the Frankfurt School as Social Critique Oliver Kozlarek, 2024-05-15 This book aims to extract a kind of Critical Humanism from the works of prominent members of the Frankfurt School Oliver Kozlarek argues that what is compelling about this kind of restitution of humanism is the fact that it sought to be understood not as a conceptual theoretical construction but as a practice of critical social and cultural research This means that it does not orient itself to an ideal image of the human being but to making inhuman conditions of our current societies visible It is above all in this sense that humanism is no longer understood in a Humboldtian educational sense Rather it is about using critical social research as a political practice

Critical Humanism Ken Plummer, 2021-09-01 We live in a mutilated world and our humanity seems irrevocably damaged Many critics suggest we have reached the end of humanity In this challenging book Ken Plummer suggests that such claims may be premature instead what we need is a new transformative understanding of humanity Critical Humanism critically reflects upon and reimagines humanism for the twenty first century What is now required is a fresh wide ranging imaginary of an open worldly plural and caring humanity It needs to take a critical stance towards older often divisive ideas of what it means to be human while reconnecting to a wider understanding of the rich diversity of life in the pluriverse In an age of post and transhumanist turns Plummer provides a personal political and passionate call for thinkers researchers and activists to not turn their backs on humanism We need instead to create a vital new political imaginary of being human in a connected planet We simply cannot afford to be anti human or posthuman Restoring our belief in humanity has never been more important for edging towards a better world for all Existentialist Background William Leon McBride, 1997 This collection of essays and reviews represents the most significant and comprehensive writing on Shakespeare's A Comedy of Errors Miola's edited work also features a comprehensive critical history coupled with a full bibliography and photographs of major productions of the play from around the world In the collection there are five previously unpublished essays The topics covered in these new essays are women in the play the play's debt to contemporary theater its critical and performance histories in Germany and Japan the metrical variety of the play and the distinctly modern perspective on the play as containing dark and disturbing elements To compliment these new essays the collection features significant scholarship and commentary on The Comedy of Errors that is published in obscure and difficultly accessible journals newspapers and other sources This collection brings together these essays for the first time Radical Philosophy, 2004 Humanism and Anti-humanism Kate Soper, 1986 Re-humanising Shakespeare Andy Mousley, 2007 Re Humanising Shakespeare argues that although Shakespeare himself contributed to the uncertainties of modern living his work can still serve as a source of existential wisdom and guidance Journal of Narrative Theory, 2006 Cultural studies critical theory poststructuralism feminist theory new historicism Radical Philosophy Review, 2001 Critical Issues in History: Eve of the modern world, 1250-1648, 1967 The Literary Philosophy of the New Humanists 1900-1930 Kathryn Preyer, 1951 The
