Writers and Social Thought in Africa Wale Adebani, 2017-10-02 Social theory and social theorizing about Africa has largely ignored African literature However because writers are some of the continent's finest social thinkers they have produced and continue to produce works which constitute potential sources for the analysis of social thought and for constructing social theory in and beyond the continent This comprehensive collection examines the relationship between African literature and African social thought It explores the evolution and aesthetics of social thought in African fiction and African writers conceptions of power and authority legitimacy history and modernity gender and sexuality culture epistemology globalization and change and continuity in Africa This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies      Perspectives on Wole Soyinka , Essays that examine the aesthetics and the radical politics of one of Africa s greatest writers

Food and Foodways in African Narratives Jonathan Highfield,2017-04-07 Food is a defining feature in every culture Despite its very basic purpose of sustaining life it directly impacts the community culture and heritage in every region around the globe in countless seen and unseen ways including the literature and narratives of each region Across the African continent food and foodways which refer to the ways that humans consume produce and experience food were influenced by slavery and forced labor colonization foreign aid and the anxieties prompted by these encounters all of which can be traced through the ways food is seen in narratives by African and colonial storytellers The African continent is home to thousands of cultures but nearly every one has experienced alteration of its foodways because of slavery transcontinental trade and colonization Food and Foodways in African Narratives Community Culture and Heritage takes a careful look at these alterations as seen through African narratives throughout various cultures and spanning centuries

Legacies of Departed African Women Writers Helen O. Chukwuma,Chioma Carol Opara,2022-08-29 Legacies of Departed African Women Writers Matrix of Creativity and Power proffers varied perspectives of the invaluable contributions of ten deceased African writers from all across Africa who have cleared the path to a vibrant African feminist arena The dynamics of change gleaned from both their textual and contextual concerns unarguably set the pace for contemporary African women writers who have striven to follow in the footsteps of their literary mothers as well as their oral foremothers This book edited by Helen Chukwuma and Chioma Carol Opara shows the collective testament of ample creativity and power generated by these departed heroes Flora Nwapa Mariama Ba Grace Ogot Zulu Sofola Bessie Head Buchi Emecheta Nawal El Saadawi Assia Djebar Yvonne Vera and Nadine Gordimer These chapters revolve around the positive impact of the celebrated writers on creative writing theoretical formulations and socio cultural change The contributors argue that these corpuses of works have illuminated creativity rooted in power vision and freedom

Bessie Head Huma Ibrahim, 1996 One of the foremost African writers of our time who dispelled the silence between colonial and feminist discourses by talking back Bessie Head at last gets her due in this first book length comprehensive study of her work This book locates Head's unquestionable importance in the canon of African literature Author Huma Ibrahim argues that unless we are able to look at the merging of women's sexual and linguistic identity with their political and gendered identity the careful configurations created in Head's work will elude us Ibrahim offers a series of thoughtful readings informed by feminist diasporan postcolonial and poststructuralist insights and concerns She identifies a theme she calls exilic consciousness the desire to belong and traces its manifestations through each phase of Head's work showing how women's talk a marginalized commodity in the construction of southern Africa is differently embodied and evaluated Bessie Head's works are frequently featured in courses in African literature third world literature and fiction writing but there is little critical material on them Ibrahim offers readings of Head's novels When Rain Clouds Gather Maru and A Question of Power as well as the collections Tales of Tenderness and Power A Collector of Treasures A Woman Alone Autobiographical Writings and The Cardinals the histories Serowe Village of the Rain Wind and A Bewitched Crossroad and her letters to Robert Vigne collected in A Gesture of Belonging In Head's exploration of oppressed people especially women and those in exile Ibrahim finds startling insights into institutional power relations Head not only subverts Western hegemonic notions of the third world woman but offers a critique of postcoloniality

The Creative Vision of Bessie Head Coreen Brown, 2003 This book is an exploration of the way in which Head's writing is her idiosyncratic response to her personal life Her desire to portray and yet subvert oppression political racist and sexist that she encountered in South Africa and Botswana led to a Romanticism born of her need to create an antithesis to what she perceived to be the reality around her Her eagerness to discover a haven in her adopted rural Botswana led to a Utopia of her own making a literary resolution imagined not actual A mental breakdown led to the creation of her greatest novel A Question of Power one which examines the depths of evil but allows also for the dawning of the heights of goodness The appendix contains many heretofore unpublished letters that help to explain the personal compulsion that provided for Head's creativity

The International Journal of African Historical Studies, 1972

Black Literature Criticism Jelena O. Krstovic, 2008 Focuses on writers and works published since 1950 The majority of the authors surveyed are African American but representative African and Caribbean authors are also included
