Crobultural Marriage Identity And Choice:

Cross-Cultural Marriage Rosemary Breger, Rosanna Hill, 2021-02-25 As societies world wide become increasingly multicultural so the issues of identity belonging tolerance and racism become imperative to understand in their various forms This book adds to the discussion by examining the interface between the lived personal experiences of people in cross cultural marriages and wider socio political issues One major contribution this book offers is that the marriages discussed are from a very broad range of cultures and classes Amongst other issues contributors examine the legal and social factors influencing cross cultural marriages the personality factors and positive or negative stereotypes of otherness that influence spouse choice notions of identity gender and personhood and definitions of difference and how these are often tied up in emotive stereotypes how all these factors affect the ongoing process of living together and the ability to cope and how the children of such marriages come to terms with identity choices This book should be highly relevant to the growing number of people in cross cultural marriages as well as to professionals in the fields of marriage guidance child welfare and academics interested in ethnicity and kinship

Cross-Cultural Marriage Rosemary Breger, Rosanna Hill, 1998-06 As societies world wide become increasingly multicultural so the issues of identity belonging tolerance and racism become imperative to understand in their various forms This book adds to the discussion by examining the interface between the lived personal experiences of people in cross cultural marriages and wider socio political issues One major contribution this book offers is that the marriages discussed are from a very broad range of cultures and classes Amongst other issues contributors examine the legal and social factors influencing cross cultural marriages the personality factors and positive or negative stereotypes of otherness that influence spouse choice notions of identity gender and personhood and definitions of difference and how these are often tied up in emotive stereotypes how all these factors affect the ongoing process of living together and the ability to cope and how the children of such marriages come to terms with identity choices This book should be highly relevant to the growing number of people in cross cultural marriages as well as to professionals in the fields of marriage guidance child welfare and academics interested in ethnicity and kinship

Intercultural Parenting and Relationships Dharam Bhugun, 2019-05-10 This book provides understandings of how intercultural racial ethnic national and faith couples and parents in Australia bring up their children and manage their relationships Which challenges and benefits do they encounter and which strategies do they use to negotiate their differences and belongingness In portraying the lived experiences of intercultural couples and parents Bhugun considers contextual and external factors such as individual and personality traits the environment gender and power religion socio economic status extended family friends and diasporic communities Moving the reader from beyond negative stereotypes to a more nuanced representation of both the challenges and benefits of the phenomenon Intercultural Parenting and Relationships provides intimate testimonies and offers innovations in theory and practice Scholars practitioners students intercultural couples parents families and the wider community will benefit from the rich insights into the challenges and successes of intercultural relationships and parenting presented in this book

Immigration and Settlement Harald Bauder, 2012 Immigration and Settlement Challenges Experiences and Opportunities draws on a selection of papers that were presented at the international Migration and the Global City conference at Ryerson University Toronto in October of 2010 Through the use of international and Canadian perspectives this book examines the contemporary challenges experiences and opportunities of immigration and settlement in global Canadian and Torontonians contexts In seventeen comprehensive chapters this text approaches immigration and settlement from various thematic angles including rights state and citizenship immigrants as labour communities and identities housing and residential contexts and emerging opportunities Immigration and Settlement will be of interest to academics researchers and students policy makers NGOs and settlement practitioners and activists and community organizers

Social Influence on Close Relationships Christopher R. Agnew, 2014-10-09 How do we choose a partner to initiate a relationship with and what makes us stay in a given relationship over time These questions are most often pursued by scholars with an emphasis on the internal thoughts feelings and motivations of individual decision makers Conversely this volume highlights the importance of considering external influences on individual decision making in close relationships Featuring contributions from internationally renowned scholars the volume is divided into two interrelated sections The first section considers global and societal influences on romantic relationships and the second focuses on social network and communicative influences on romantic relationships Taken together this collection helps us to better understand how external factors influence the internal machinations of those involved in intimate relationships

Inappropriate Relationships Robin Goodwin, Duncan Cramer, 2005-04-11 In one of the great euphemisms of our time an embattled President Clinton admitted to an inappropriate relationship with his White House intern Monica Lewinsky But what exactly is an inappropriate relationship For that matter what is an appropriate relationship And how can an understanding of the rules of appropriateness help us understand personal relationships in our modern world Contributors to this book discuss the personal boundaries and taboos of modern relationships Together they examine the power struggles that can occur when individuals are involved in inappropriate relationships and the ways individuals in such a relationship may attempt to buffer themselves against sanctions or even embrace this relationship as an agent of social change Representing work from a range of disciplines this collection will appeal to scholars researchers students and professionals working on relationships issues in areas across the social sciences including those working in the fields of social psychology family studies social anthropology cultural studies and communication

The Art of Symbolic Resistance Joanne N. Smith Finley, 2013-09-12 Against the background of the 1989 Tiananmen riots July 2009 this book provides a longitudinal study of contemporary Uyghur identities and Uyghur Han relations Previous studies considered China's Uyghurs from the perspective of the majority Han state or people Conversely The Art of Symbolic Resistance considers Uyghur identities from a local perspective based on interviews conducted with group members over nearly twenty years Smith Finley rejects assertions that the Uyghur ethnic group is a creation of the Chinese state suggesting that contemporary Uyghur identities involve a complex interplay between long standing intra group socio cultural commonalities and a more recently evolved sense of common enmity towards the Han This book advances the discipline in three senses from a focus on sporadic violent opposition to one on everyday symbolic resistance from state to local representations and from a conceptualisation of Uyghurs as victim to one of creative agent

Bilingual Couples Talk Ingrid Piller, 2002-10-10 This sociolinguistic study of the linguistic practices of bilingual couples describes the conditions processes and results of private language contact It is based on a unique corpus of more than 20 hours of private conversations between partners in bilingual marriages Adding to its breadth of coverage these private conversations are supplemented with larger public discourses about international couplehood The volume thus offers a corpus driven investigation of the ways in which ideologies of gender nationality and immigration mediate linguistic performances in private cross cultural communication The author embraces social constructionist feminist and postmodern approaches to second language learning multilingualism and cross cultural communication In contrast to other titles in the field which have focused almost exclusively on the socialization of bilingual children this book explores what it means to one's sense of self to become socialized into a second language and culture as a late bilingual

South Asian Migration in Comparative Perspective, Movement, Settlement and Diaspora Yasurō Hase, Hiroyuki Miyake, Fumiko Oshikawa, 2002

Lao/Thai - European-American Interethnic Marriages Rosy Chang Weir, 2002 Bulletin of the Royal Institute for Inter-Faith Studies, 2000 Women and Credit Beverly Lemire, Ruth Pearson, Gail Campbell, 2001 Comprises 19 papers which provide examples of credit agencies and initiatives in both developed and developing countries and make suggestions for reconfiguring the relationship between women and credit

The International Migration Review, 2009 Global Marriage Lucy Williams, 2010-08-20 Research on cross border marriage migration is an expanding field but to date has been studied from close regional or community specific perspectives Research has tended to focus on either marriage within settled migrant communities or on marriages between citizens and migrants with different cultural and ethnic heritage By drawing on a broad range of literature relating to cross border marriage migration this book aims to bridge the conceptual gap between these two streams of research and to place studies of cross border marriage in a global context Throughout the book emphasises the role of policy in shaping and gendering marriage migration and highlights how migrants use their personal agency to negotiate social and gender roles through marriage across borders Key themes in the book are role of individual agency in negotiating marriage and migration and the experience of symbolic and actual violence faced by marriage migrants Creating Families Across Boundaries Ana Vineanu, 2007 Based on unstructured interviews with thirteen Romanian Egyptian couples presently living in Cairo this study focuses on three interrelated aspects of these mixed marriages the contexts that allowed the formation of the mixed families the practices in which the couples engage in terms of household organization gender relations and kinship and the role of religion in the lives of the mixed couples and how both the men and women position themselves in this regard Cairo Papers Vol 28 No 1      Die Liebe War Stärker Als Das Heimweh Karin Maria Schmidlechner, James W. Miller, 2003      Marriages and Families Agnes Czerwinski Riedmann, Mary Ann Lamanna, Adie Nelson, 2002 This new adaptation of the best selling American text is contemporary covering such current topics as non traditional families Comprehensive with all material being deemed essential by reviewers and Balanced with excellent historical and theoretical coverage of Canadian families Using the theme of choice the text helps students learn with weblinks at end of each chapter As We Make Choices boxes and A Closer Look At Diversity sections      Tongans Overseas Helen Morton Lee, 2003-01-31 Since the late 1960s Tongans have been leaving their islands in large numbers and settling in many different nations Tongans Overseas is a timely look at their settlement experiences as they relate to cultural identity particularly among the younger generations raised outside Tonga What does being Tongan mean to these young people Why do some proudly proclaim and cherish their Tongan identities while others remain ambivalent confused or indifferent Helen Morton Lee s innovative research offers insights into these and many other questions revealing the complexities of identity construction in the context of migration and the varied ways in which individuals seek a sense of belonging Using both traditional ethnographic fieldwork and newly popular Internet discussion forums where young Tongans speak their minds and describe their experiences Lee has produced the most comprehensive study of Tongan migrants to date Throughout the book diasporic Tongans speak eloquently about their lives and case studies of families and individuals bring the analysis to life Lee explores tensions within overseas communities especially the intergenerational conflicts that are contributing to the alienation of many young Tongans today      Intercultural Competence Myron W. Lustig, Jolene Koester, 2003 Striking a unique balance between skills and theory Intercultural Competence provides students with the background and confidence to succeed in today s multicultural environment Blending both the practical and the theoretical the concrete and the abstract this textbook is both enjoyable to read and thoroughly researched By clearly explaining different theories and the significance of cultural patterns and having students practice what they learn via examples in the book Intercultural Competence better prepares students to interact in intercultural relationships The text also provides a discussion of important ethical and social issues relating to intercultural communication The authors cover U S cultures as well as global cultural issues      Islam Claire Woodward, 2002 Islam Background Bibliography
