Cross Cultural Encounters In Joseph Conrads Malay Fiction:

Cross-Cultural Encounters in Joseph Conrad's Malay Fiction R. Hampson, 2000-11-08 This is the first major study to bring together for examination all of Conrad's Malay fiction the early novels Almayer's Folly An Outcast of the Islands and Lord Jim the two later novels Victory and The Rescue and various short stories such as The Lagoon and Karain The volume focuses on cross cultural encounters cultural identity and cultural dislocation paying particular attention to issues of race and gender He also situates Conrad's fiction in relation to earlier English accounts of South East Asia

Conrad in the Twenty-first Century Carola M. Kaplan, Peter Lancelot Mallios, Andrea White, 2005 The original essays in this collection examine Conrad in the light of his representations of post colonialism of empire imperialism of modernism modernity questions that are as relevant today as they were in the early years of the 20th century

Conrad's Secrets R. Hampson, 2012-08-13 Conrad's Secrets explores a range of knowledges which would have been familiar to Conrad and his original readers Drawing on research into trade policing sexual and financial scandals changing theories of trauma and contemporary war crimes the book provides contexts for Conrad's fictions and produces original readings of his work

Silence, Space and Absence in Conrad's Works John G. Peters, 2023-10-12 This book considers the relationship between sound and silence in the works of Joseph Conrad along with their ties to Western and non Western space Throughout Conrad's works a pattern emerges where Western space is associated with sound and non Western space is associated with silence similarly Western space is portrayed as full of objects and activity whereas non Western space is portrayed as empty As these tales progress though Conrad's characters embark on transformational journeys that cause them to reassess the world they live in and sometimes even the nature of the universe These journeys invariably occur through encountering non Western space and during the course of these journeys the dichotomy between Western space perceived as replete with sound and activity and non Western space empty of such blurs such that the fullness of the West is revealed to be simply a surface hiding the emptiness beneath In the end both Western and non Western space are revealed to be absences as the absence of sound becomes a correlative for the emptiness of space and the emptiness of space becomes a metonym for the cosmological emptiness of nothingness

Pirates and Mutineers of the Nineteenth Century Grace Moore, 2016-12-05 The first volume devoted to literary pirates in the nineteenth century this collection examines changes in the representation of the pirate from the beginning of the nineteenth century through the late Victorian period Gone were the dangerous ruffians of the eighteenth century novel and in their place emerged a set of brooding and lovable rogues as exemplified by Byron's Corsair As the contributors engage with acts of piracy by men and women in the literary marketplace as well as on the high seas they show that both forms were foundational in the promotion and execution of Britain's imperial ambitions Linking the pirate's development as a literary figure with the history of piracy and the making of the modern state tells us much about race class and evolving gender relationships While individual chapters examine key texts like Treasure Island Dickens's 1857 mutiny story in Household

Words and Peter Pan the collection as a whole interrogates the growth of pirate myths and folklore throughout the nineteenth century and the depiction of their nautical heirs in contemporary literature and culture Culture and Commerce in Conrad's Asian Fiction Andrew Francis, 2015-04-23 Andrew Francis Culture and Commerce in Conrad's Asian Fiction is the first book length critical study of commerce in Conrad's work It reveals not only the complex connections between culture and commerce in Conrad's Asian fiction but also how he employed commerce in characterization moral contexts and his depiction of relations at a point of advanced European imperialism Conrad's treatment of commerce Arab Chinese and Malay as well as European is explored within a historically specific context as intricate and resistant to traditional readings of commerce as simple and homogeneous Through the analysis of both literary and non literary sources this book examines capitalism colonialism and globalization within the commercial political and social contexts of colonial Southeast Asia A Historical Guide to Joseph Conrad John Gerard Peters, 2010 Joseph Conrad achieved worldwide literary renown in his third language Despite not having learned English until his twenties Conrad succeeded in breaking new ground with his portrayal of anti heroes distinctive narrative style becoming a major influence on 20th century English language fiction Joseph Conrad and the Reader Amar Acheraiou, 2009-10-21 Pt I Theoretical perspectives 1 Conrad's conception of authorship probing the implications and limits of the death of the author theory Pt II Reception theory reading as a cultural and ideological construct 2 Polish responses art and the ethics of collectivity 3 British reception Englishness and the act of reading Pt III Aesthetic ramifications narrative entanglements and fictional readers 4 Conrad's visual aesthetics classical and modern connections 5 A cartography of Conrad's fictional readers reading hierarchy in Lord Jim Heart of Darkness Nostromo and Victory 6 Narrative solidarity and competition for truth and signification 7 Conrad and the construction of the reader tension between democratic vision and aristocratic leaning 8 Narrative self consciousness and the act of reading examining Under Western Eyes through the lens of the poetics of Fielding Sterne and Diderot

Occidentalism in Novels of Malaysia and Singapore, 1819-2004 Tamara S. Wagner, 2005 Presents a thematic analysis of the English language novels of Malaysia and Singapore focusing upon the ways that occidentalism and orientalism interact influence shape and redefine each other This book focuses on the central place that commerce and monetary values have in these works Nsukka Journal of the Humanities, 2008 Conrad's Eastern Vision A. Yeow, 2009 This book traces the dialogic relation between Conrad's Eastern fiction and other histories and argues that it is precisely in the intersections of art and history that we locate Conrad's irony The dialogism of Conrad's East resists any finalising meaning and its loophole lies in subjective vision In a direct response to the visual culture of his times Conrad sets up his fictional world as a hallucinated mirage even as he stresses the veracity of his own Eastern vision Joseph Conrad Today, 2001 〇〇〇〇, 2004 The Conradian, 2006 Joseph Conrad and Psychological Medicine Martin Bock, 2002 Conrad's life and fiction are often read through the lens of Freudian thought though Conrad understood his own health from a pre Freudian perspective

Joseph Conrad and Psychological Medicine recovers that perspective revises our understanding of Conrad's life and rethinks the dominant themes of his work in light of pre-Freudian medical psychology. Beginning with a social history of late nineteenth-century medical psychology and hysteria studies, Bock's study presents a clear and readable synopsis of fin de siècle theories of nervous disorder and moral insanity, showing how Conrad's doctors were trained in medical theories that privilege the physiological over the psychological and describes what Conrad endured during his water cures at Châmpel les Bains and in an English culture that constructed nervous disease, particularly his diagnosed neurasthenia, as a feminine disorder. Joseph Conrad and Psychological Medicine reads Conrad's fiction medically, showing how Conrad's work focuses on such narrative strategies as Conrad's rhetoric of hysteria and enervation and his vivid nervous descriptions, and it shows how major tropes such as restraint, seclusion, and water, all treatments for insanity, were important issues in the medical discourse of Conrad's day and are themes that run through Conrad's fiction. Bock's study also suggests that Conrad's major breakdown of 1910 was an epiphany, an event Conrad feared for decades but that afterwards allowed him to shift the interests of his fiction. The post-breakdown fiction offers less brooding and more allegorized narrations of Conrad's medical history as he moves towards a greater acceptance late in his life of his gender and sexuality. Rethinking Postcolonialism Amar Acheraïou, 2008-04. Acheraïou challenges postcolonial discourse analysis and proposes a new model of interpretation that resituates the historical, ideological, and conceptual denseness of the Colonial idea. He questions key issues including hybridity, Otherness, and territoriality and expands the postcolonial field by introducing ground-breaking theoretical concepts.

Tracing the Aesthetic Principle in Conrad's Novels Yael Levin, 2009-03-13. Offers a post-structuralist inspired explication of Conrad's literary vision and its defining feature, the aesthetic principle. Bijdragen tot de taal-, land- en volkenkunde, 2004. English Novel Explication Peter L. Abernethy, 1976. English Literature in Transition, 1880-1920, 2004.
