Israel/Palestine Drew Paul, 2020-01-07 Since the early 1990s Israel has greatly expanded a system checkpoints walls and other barriers in the West Bank and Gaza that restrict Palestinian movement Israel Palestine examines how authors and filmmakers have grappled with the spread of these borders Focusing on the works of Elia Suleiman Raba i al Madhoun Ghassan Kanafani Sami Michael and Sayed Kashua it traces how political engagement in literature and film has shifted away from previously common paradigms of resistance and coexistence and has become reorganised around these now ubiquitous physical barriers Depictions of these borders interrogate the notion that such spaces are impenetrable and unbreakable imagine distinct forms of protest and redefine the relationship between cultural production and political engagement

Mobility, Spatiality, and Resistance in Literary and Political Discourse Christian Beck, 2021-11-11 Mobility Space and Resistance Transformative Spatiality in Literary and Political Discourse draws from various disciplines such as geography sociology political science gender studies and poststructuralist thought to posit the productive capabilities of literature in political action and at the same time show how literary art can resist the imposition and domination of oppressive systems of our spatial lives The various approaches topics and types of literature discussed in this volume display a concern for social issues that can be addressed in and through literature The essays address social injustice oppression discrimination and their spatial representations While offering interpretations of literature this collection seeks to show how literary spaces contribute to understanding changing or challenging physical spaces of our lived world

Israelis and Palestinians in the Shadows of the Wall Stéphanie Latte Abdallah, Cédric Parizot, 2016-03-09 Shedding light on the recent mutations of the Israeli separation policy whose institutional and spatial configurations are increasingly complex this book argues that this policy has actually reinforced the interconnectedness of Israelis and Palestinian lives and their spaces Instead of focusing on the over mediatized separation wall this book deals with what it hides its shadows Based on fieldwork studies carried out by French Italian Israeli Palestinian and Swiss researchers on the many sides of the Israeli Palestinian divide it highlights a new geography of occupation specific forms of interconnectedness and power relations between Israeli and Palestinian spaces It offers a better understanding of the transformation of people s interactions their experiences and the ongoing economy of exchanges created by the separation regime This heterogeneous regime increasingly involves the participation of Palestinian and international actors Grounded in

The Israeli Policy of Closure, 1995 Making Sense of the Global Raúl Acosta, Sadaf Rizvi, Ana Santos, 2010 Anthropology is more relevant than ever before to making sense of the constant intercultural encounters taking place around the world Even though the discipline was born out of the need to understand the way humans interact it had for decades been trapped in a counter cultural stance that effectively disarmed it of any direct influence on public affairs Recent global trends however have brought this academic discipline to the attention of governments agencies and social entrepreneurs because of its capacity to create bridges of understanding between people of contrasting cultures This ability is today more necessary than ever before in facing the challenges posed by the shrinking of our world This volume provides reflections on what anthropological research can offer through its oethick analyses We are convinced that ethnographic research can contribute to a better understanding of social phenomena in our global times Index to Jewish Periodicals, 2005 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests Palestinian
