Keeping the Ink Wet Kevin G. Yell, 2025-01-09 Preachers worship leaders and actors are all trying to do one thing make the words on the page come alive making the texts of their respective authors flesh in real time and space To do it successfully takes a mixture of natural talent skills training and lots of rehearsal It s the work of communication and the purpose is always to invite the audience or congregation into an experience of some mix of truth beauty hope and reconciliation Performers take years training in the skills needed Ministers unfortunately often receive very little help or support in developing their own unique way of taking what is inside them their faith and questions their love and wisdom and using that depth to open the living word of God This book offers a journey through the wisdom and practice of theater for their benefit A script after all is just a starting point It is neither a play nor an act of worship until it has a body with breath to give it life Each of us is that body called to play with the Author to find meaning in the words Consider this an invitation to come and play
