Revolutionizing English Education Clarice M. Moran, 2024-04-30 Artificial Intelligence or AI has seemingly burst into public consciousness with sudden vigor Previously relinquished to computer science journals it erupted as the unrelenting topic of public media with most of the furor surrounding chatbots like ChatGPT Although many educators began worrying about the implications of AI in student learning and creative activity this book will demonstrate that AI can be harnessed as a source of inspiration and meaningful instruction With an emphasis on useful classroom strategies as well as a consideration of the ethics of AI this book seeks to start a conversation in this nascent area of research and practice The primary focus is on the use of AI in the secondary English classroom but educators in other disciplines will find plenty of ideas and information

Invisibility by Design Gabriella Lukács, 2020-01-03 In the wake of labor market deregulation during the 2000s online content sharing and social networking platforms were promoted in Japan as new sites of work that were accessible to anyone Enticed by the chance to build personally fulfilling careers many young women entered Japan's digital economy by performing unpaid labor as photographers net idols bloggers online traders and cell phone novelists While some women leveraged digital technology to create successful careers most did not In Invisibility by

Design Gabriella Luk cs traces how these women s unpaid labor became the engine of Japan s digital economy Drawing on interviews with young women who strove to sculpt careers in the digital economy Luk cs shows how platform owners tapped unpaid labor to create innovative profit generating practices without employing workers thereby rendering women s labor invisible By drawing out the ways in which labor precarity generates a demand for feminized affective labor Luk cs underscores the fallacy of the digital economy as a more democratic egalitarian and inclusive mode of production A Developmental Approach Investigating Differences in the Way High School Students of Varying Performance Levels Conceptualize Academic Essay Writing Loretta Sue Kane,2005 A.I.
