Crises In European History:

Crises of European Integration Lucas Schramm, 2024-04-08 The book offers explanations for the striking variation in the outcomes of European integration crises It analyzes eight major cases over the entire integration process starting from the early 1950s and lasting until very recently All cases went beyond a single policy field or member state but affected key features principles and objectives of European integration As such they qualify as constitutional crises My cases comprise the crisis of the European Defence Community 1952 54 the empty chair crisis 1965 66 the oil crisis 1973 74 the budgetary rebate crisis 1979 84 the end of the Cold War crisis 1989 92 the Constitutional Treaty crisis 2004 07 the Euro crisis 2009 12 and the migration crisis 2015 16 Taking a historical comparative perspective the book shows that crises have been an integral part of the European integration process since its beginning European integration after all started with a major setback when member states in 1954 failed to realize plans for a European army through the European Defense Community

Crises in European History Gustav Bang, 1931 Crises in European History. Translated From the Danish by Arnold Petersen Gustav Bang, 2023-07-18 Bang's fascinating analysis of the crises that have shaped European history offers fresh insights into the political social and economic forces that have shaped our world Petersen's thoughtful translation captures the nuance and complexity of Bang's ideas making this book a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history of Europe This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

Crises in European History Gustav Bang, 1916 Reform, Revolution and Crisis in Europe Bronwyn Winter, Cat Moir, 2019-10-31 Today Europe stands at a crossroads unlike any it has faced since 1945 Since the 2008 financial crash Europe has weathered the Greek debt crisis the 2015 refugee crisis and the identity crisis brought about by Brexit in 2016 The future of the European project is in doubt How will Europe respond Reform and revolution have been two forms of response to crisis that have shaped Europe's history To understand Europe's present we must understand that past This interdisciplinary book considers through the prism of several landmark moments how the dynamics of reformation and revolution and the crises they either addressed or created have shaped European history memory and thought

CRISES IN EUROPEAN HIST Gustav 1871-1915 Bang, Arnold 1885-1976 Petersen, Tr, 2016-08-25 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the

Crises in European History. Translated from the Danish by Arnold Petersen Gustav Bang, 2012-08 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy

CRISES IN EUROPEAN HIST Gustav 1871-1915 Bang, 2016-08-25 Crises in European History Gustav Bang, 2015-07-02 Excerpt from Crises in European History Translated From the Danish by Arnold Petersen Gustav Bang's work Crises in European History Brydningstider i Europas Historie was first published serially in the Daily People during 1909-10 As an economic interpretation of three important crises in European history it is perhaps one of the best considering the brevity of the work Dr Bang here employs to the best advantage the Marxian key and succeeds in unravelling what to the average reader usually appear to be mysteries or near mysteries As the author explains in his introduction the motive power of historical changes is to be found in the economic basis of a given society in the methods of production and exchange peculiar to that society To put it in this manner is of course to lay oneself open to the charge of teaching that that economic basis and nothing else influences the historical processes Dr Bang however in the concrete examples chosen furnishes ample evidence to show that while that undoubtedly is the chief and in the long run the really important factor the line cannot be drawn too sharply between cause and effect seeing the effect frequently reacts upon the cause stimulating it and aiding in accelerating or retarding temporarily as the case may be the historical process The publishers have felt that the work deserved a wider circle of readers than was possible through the Daily People and for this reason present it to the English speaking working class in booklet form Since this work was first published Dr Bang has passed away His death was a loss to the International movement especially at a time when all the clearest and ablest men in that movement were needed Gustav Bang was born September 26 1871 in a small provincial town in Denmark He died on January 31 1915 About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Post-Crisis European Cinema György Kalmár,2020-06-02 This book explores the cinematic representations of the pervasive socio cultural change that the 21st century brought to Europe and the world Discussing films such as I Daniel Blake Cold War and Jupiter s Moon it puts distinctively post crisis gendered representations in a complex theoretically informed and socially committed interdisciplinary perspective that maps the newly emerging formations of masculinity at a time of rapid socio economic transition Kalmar argues that the series of crises that started with the 9 11 terrorist attacks changed some of our fundamental expectations about history debunked many of our grand narratives and thus changed the cultural logic of our thoroughly globalized civilization The book focuses on the ways cinema reflects interprets and shapes a rapidly changing world the hot issues of the times the new formations of identity and the shifts in cinematic representation This is an interdisciplinary research that is equally interested in what new the 21st century brought about most specifically to Europe and to its white men as in film and its responses to these socio cultural changes

The European Refugee Crisis Michèle Wagner,2019-07-01 Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject Politics Topic European Union grade 1 7 University of Applied Sciences Essen language English abstract The problem of this term paper is the same which millions of Europeans discuss daily does the refugee crisis create more advantages or more disadvantages Does it entail risks or does it bring more opportunities than expected This paper is intended to give a picture of migration in Europe and to show that migration is a widespread and strategic component of the industrialization history of Europe over the last 300 years Starting with the migration of workers from Westphalia to Amsterdam in the 18th century or the migration of Italian workers to German railway and urban construction in the 19th century Migrant workers who came to Paris and German Jews who fled to neighboring countries as far as the USA It is intended to show how history can contribute to seeing today's refugee and immigration policy in a different light and to correcting the notion that Europe is not a continent of immigration. There will not be a comprehensive overview of individual events but rather a focus on how migrations arise, happen, and end. How they give host countries the chance to develop but also the risks involved in receiving and caring for refugees. The focus of this work will be on the flow of refugees from 2015 to 2018.
