Crisis In Christology Essays In Quest Resolution:

Three Faiths, One God Jacob Neusner, Bruce D. Chilton, William Albert Graham, 2002 In systematic descriptions three of today's leading scholars detail the classical theologies of Judaism Christianity and Islam and the authoritative texts of those theologies They compare and contrast the three faiths each of which has a set of doctrines practices and beliefs that addresses common issues

Crisis in Christology William R. Farmer, 1995 From THE MYTH OF GOD INCARNATE in the Seventies to THE FIVE GOSPELS in the Nineties popular presentations of modern New Testament Christological studies have usually been hostile to historic Christian affirmations conceptions But popular presentations are often guilty of sound bite sensationalism Responsible scholarship on the other hand cannot play to the gallery

Jesus as a Figure in History Mark Allan Powell, 1998-01-01 Essential reading for anyone interested in the historical Jesus debate this volume offers a comprehensive and balanced account of research into the person of Jesus

The Reliability of the Gospel Tradition Birger Gerhardsson, 2001 The historical reliability of the Gospels has been discussed from the Enlightenment onwards At present many scholars assume that the canonical Gospels as we have them are essentially fictions constructed near the end of the first century to meet the needs of the Christian movement of that time and that they give us very little reliable information regarding the life and teachings of Jesus But have these scholars really understood the nature of the written Gospels Birger Gerhardsson has devoted almost the whole of his academic career to the study of the oral tradition that is the basis of our canonical Gospels His groundbreaking doctoral dissertation Memory and Manuscript drew a parallel between the way in which the rabbis taught their disciples and the way Jesus taught his disciples both required memorization of the master's teaching Rabbinic disciples handed on their masters tradition with great care and we can be sure that the disciples of Jesus would have been no less careful with what he taught them The Reliability of the Gospel Tradition presents three studies that illuminate how the early Christians passed on tradition The Origins of the Gospel Tradition gives an accessible review of the debate regarding the extent to which the New Testament evangelists enable us to hear the voice of Jesus The Path of the Gospel Tradition contains a critical discussion of the approach of the form critical school to the problem of the early Christian tradition ending with an alternative sketch of the path of the tradition The Gospel Tradition offers a rather detailed picture of various aspects of the content and method of early Christian tradition and assesses the reliability of the four oldest of the extant written records In the current climate of skepticism I know of nothing more helpful than Birger Gerhardsson's writings and that is why I am particularly delighted that the pieces that compose the present volume are again available in print New generations of students deserve to have them not merely because they ultimately vindicate the church's estimate of Jesus but because they are true to the nature of the Gospels themselves and to the purpose of those who wrote them Donald A Hagner from the Foreword

On the Cutting Edge Jane Schaberg, Alice Bach, Esther Fuchs, 2004 These essays in honor of Professor Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza draw on international feminist scholarship indebted to her groundbreaking achievements in the areas of biblical studies feminist thought and social justice The contributors represent a wide variety of backgrounds commitments methodologies talents and interests They are united here by their appreciation for her as scholar teacher mentor colleague and friend The spectrum is full of vitality with important convergences and intersections It exemplifies what Schussler Fiorenza has called critical collaboration women thinking together and creating together This Festschrift is unique in that it celebrates the work of all women in the field

"Behind" the Text Craig G. Bartholomew, 2003 Behind the Text examines the correlation between history and the Bible For the scholar student and informed reader of the Bible this volume highlights the importance of history for biblical interpretation and looks at how history has and should influence interpretation Publisher

Religious Diversity in the Graeco-Roman World Dan Cohn-Sherbok, John M. Court, 2001 This pioneering study by leading scholars in the field surveys a century of scholarship and seeks to untangle the complexities of religious interactions and conflict in the first century CE Over the last hundred years there has been a great deal of interest in the nature of religious diversity in the Graeco Roman world A wide variety of scholars have attempted to untangle the complexities of religious interaction and conflict that characterized it in every phase Students of this period now have a convenient and authoritative introduction to recent work in this vast field of scholarship The volume comprises Philip Esler on Palestinian Judaism in the First Century John Barclay on Diaspora Judaism Charlotte Hempel on the Essenes Donald Hagner on Historical Jesus studies James Dunn on Paul Thomas O Loughlin on The Early Church Graham Anderson on Greek religion Robin Mc L Wilson on Gnosticism and John Court on Mithraism

Jesus and the Suffering Servant W. H. Bellinger, William Reuben Farmer, 1998 These articles from a 1996 symposium on Isaiah 53 and Christian Origins zero in on the relation of Jesus to the images of the Suffering Servant introduced in Isaiah asking whether Jesus consciously identified with that ancient image
